Bill 156 2026

An Act to proclaim Home and Community Care Awareness Week

Preamble

Home and community care is an essential part of Ontario's health care system.

Home and community care enables many Ontarians to receive care and support in their homes and communities, helping them maintain their independence and quality of life.

Home and community care professionals and workers provide vital services that support patients, families and caregivers throughout Ontario.

It is appropriate to recognize the contributions of the home and community care sector and to promote public awareness of the important role it plays in the continuum of care.

Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

Home and Community Care Awareness Week

1 The first full week in October in each year is proclaimed as Home and Community Care Awareness Week.

Commencement

2 This Act comes into force on the day it receives Royal Assent.

Short title

3 The short title of this Act is the Home and Community Care Awareness Week Act, 2026.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Bill proclaims the first full week in October in each year as Home and Community Care Awareness Week.
