THE GOVERNMENT

After an election, the political party with the greatest (most) number of elected members is asked to form the Government. The leader of the party with the largest number of elected Members of Provincial Parliament becomes the leader of the provincial government, called the Premier. The government is responsible for setting priorities and policies that take care of the day-to-day running of the province.

THE OPPOSITION

Opposition parties in Parliament holds the government of the day accountable. The opposition is usually made up of one or more political parties. The political party that elects the second-largest number of MPPs after the governing party forms the Official Opposition and their leader becomes the Leader of the Official Opposition.

BRANCHES OF GOVERNMENT

There are three branches of government in Ontario.

Choose the branch of government below that matches each description.

This branch is made up of the 124 elected Members of Provincial Parliament. They have the power to pass, amend, or repeal laws. They work at the Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

Legislative

This branch is made up of the Ministers of Cabinet. They can also be called the Executive Council. They are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor on the advice of the Premier.

Executive

ABOUT THE CROWN

CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY

Canada is a constitutional monarchy, which means His Majesty King Charles III is Canada's Head of State. Although all laws in Canada are passed in the monarch's name, the power of governing rests with the Prime Minister or the Premier. The Head of State has no influence over decisions made by the country's elected officials and does not interfere with the decisions of parliament.

The Governor General and the Lieutenant Governor represent the King in Canada and the Provinces and act on his behalf.

Choose the title that matches each role below.

MEMBERS OF PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT

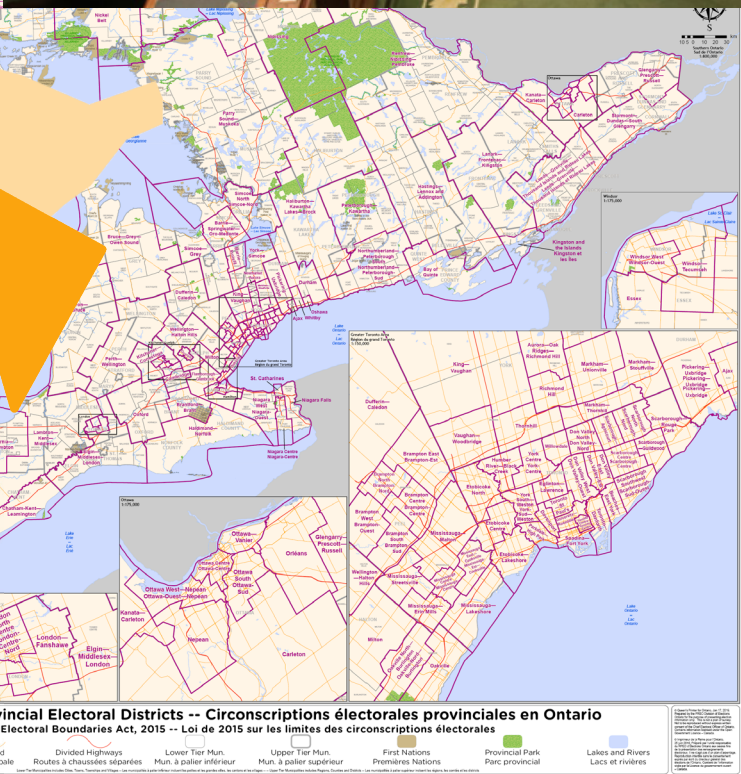

Members of Provincial Parliament (MPPs) are elected by the people of Ontario. Each MPP represents the people of their electoral district (riding) in the provincial Parliament. There are 124 MPPs, one for each electoral district in Ontario. MPPs work in the Legislative Chamber and building in Toronto, and in their communities.

MPPs have many roles and responsibilities.

Select the tasks below that are NOT part of a Member of Provincial Parliament's job:

- discuss and debate proposed bills
- represent the people from their community at the provincial parliament
- ~~rescue lots of animals~~ X
- help people in their community
- work in Toronto
- ~~have a swimming pool at their house for everyone in the neighbourhood~~ X
- attend special events in their community
- work in their community

WHO IS YOUR MPP?

Visit the Elections Ontario website at www.elections.on.ca and enter your postal code to find out the name of your electoral district and MPP!

VOTING AND POLITICAL PARTIES

VOTING IN ONTARIO

During an election, the candidate who receives the most votes, becomes the MPP for that electoral district, even if they received less than 50% of the total votes cast. Only Canadian citizens who live in the Province of Ontario and who are over the age of 18 can vote in a Provincial election.

POLITICAL PARTIES

After a provincial election, the political party with the most MPPs will usually be asked to form the government. The other members and parties would form the opposition. In Ontario, there are many recognized parties, some of which are represented in the provincial parliament. Each political party has their own party leader.

WHO ARE MY REPRESENTATIVES?

1. What is the name of your electoral district? _____

HOW A BILL BECOMES A LAW

The process of passing bills into law is one of the main tasks of a Parliament and it takes up a major portion of the Assembly's time. All bills must pass through several stages of the legislative process before a bill can become a law.

The stages of a bill are all scrambled! Put these stages in the correct order by filling in each stage's number in the circles below.
