

The Legislative Chamber

During your visit to Queen's Park, you may have visited the Legislative Chamber where the laws for the province of Ontario are debated and made. Test your memory and see what you can remember!

The 10 smaller chandeliers were added in 1986 to provide more light for the: _____.

Each large chandelier has _____ light bulbs.

The seats overlooking the east and west sides of the Chamber are used by: _____.

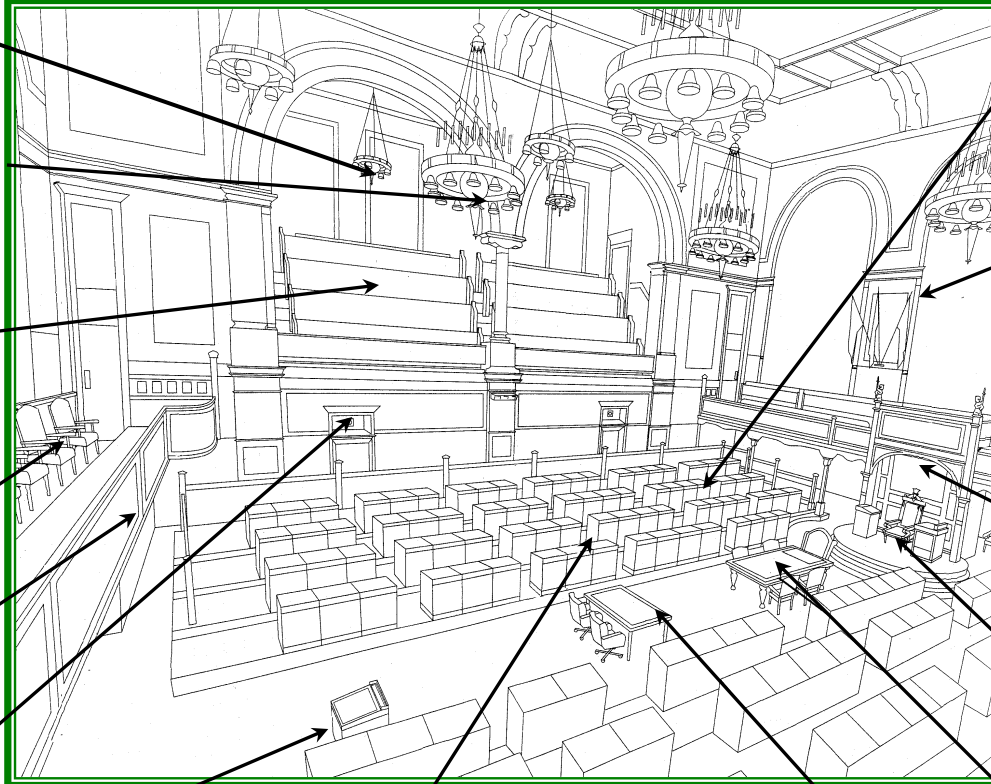

To sit here you must be a guest of the: _____.

The area under the Speaker's gallery is for guests of _____.

The Chamber has _____ T.V. cameras.

Did you know you can watch the debates on our website?
Just go to www.ontla.on.ca

Bonus Question #1: How many Members of Provincial Parliament are there in Ontario? _____.

The seats to the right of the Speaker are reserved for the _____.

They face the opposition.

Name the three flags hanging above the Press Gallery:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

The date carved in the wood at the front of the Chamber is _____.
This represents the year of Canada's confederation.

This chair is used by the: _____.

His or her role in the Chamber is to: _____.

In front of the Speaker's Chair is a large table that belongs to the _____. He or she is an expert on the rules of Parliament.

Bonus Question #2: What are the grade 7 and 8 students who work in the Legislative Chamber called? _____.

This desk belongs to the: _____.

He protects the Mace and the Chamber.

In the first two rows on the government side you will find department leaders known as _____ Ministers.

The leader of the government sits in the front row and is called the _____.

The smaller table in the middle of the Chamber is for the _____ reporters.
They make a word-for-word report of the discussions in the Chamber.

The Legislative Chamber

During your visit to Queen's Park, you may have visited the Legislative Chamber where the laws for the province of Ontario are debated and made. Test your memory and see what you can remember!

The 10 smaller chandeliers were added in 1986 to provide more light for the: TV Cameras.

Each large chandelier has 52 light bulbs.

The seats overlooking the east and west sides of the Chamber are used by: Members of the public.

To sit here you must be a guest of the: Speaker.

The area under the Speaker's gallery is for guests of MPPs.

The Chamber has 5 T.V. cameras.

Did you know you can watch the debates on our website?
Just go to www.ontla.on.ca

Bonus Question #1: How many Members of Provincial Parliament are there in Ontario? 107.

The seats to the right of the Speaker are reserved for the government.

They face the opposition.

Name the three flags hanging above the Press Gallery:

1. The Canadian Flag
2. The Flag of Ontario
3. The Legislative Assembly of Ontario Flag

The date carved in the wood at the front of the Chamber is 1867.
This represents the year of Canada's confederation.

This chair is used by the: Speaker
His or her role in the Chamber is to: Maintain order and make sure that the MPPs follow the rules.

In front of the Speaker's Chair is a large table that belongs to the Clerk. He or she is an expert on the rules of Parliament.

Bonus Question #2: What are the grade 7 and 8 students who work in the Legislative Chamber called? Legislative Pages.

This desk belongs to the: Sergeant-At-Arms.
He protects the Mace and the Chamber.

In the first two rows on the government side you will find department leaders known as Cabinet Ministers.

The leader of the government sits in the front row and is called the Premier.

The smaller table in the middle of the Chamber is for the Hansard reporters. They make a word-for-word report of the discussions in the Chamber.