His Honour the Administrator entered the Chamber and took his seat upon the Throne.

The Government House Leader said:-

“I am commanded by His Honour the Administrator to state that he does not see fit to declare the causes of the summoning of the present legislature of this Province until a Speaker of this House shall have been chosen according to law, but tomorrow at 2:00 p.m. His Honour will declare the causes of the calling of this Legislature.”

His Honour was then pleased to retire.

The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly addressed the Members as follows:-

“Members of the Legislative Assembly, it is my duty to call upon you to elect one of your numbers to preside over your deliberations as Speaker, therefore, I ask for nominations for the Office of the Speaker.”

The Clerk having declared the Honourable Mr. Levac duly elected, he was conducted by Mrs. Sandals and Mr. Ouellette to the dais, where, standing on the upper step of the dais, he returned his humble acknowledgement to the House for the great honour that had been conferred on him by the members choosing him to be their Speaker.

The Speaker assumed the Chair and the Mace was laid upon the Table.

On motion by Mr. Milloy, it was Ordered that the House adjourn until 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 22, 2011.

The House adjourned at 3:08 p.m.
The Members having assembled:-

His Honour the Lieutenant Governor entered the Chamber and took his seat upon the Throne.

The Speaker addressed His Honour as follows:

"May it please Your Honour,

The Legislative Assembly has elected me as their Speaker, though I am but little able to fulfill the important duties thus assigned to me.

If, in the performance of those duties, I should at any time fall into error, I pray that the fault may be imputed to me and not to the Assembly whose servant I am, and who, through me, the better to enable them to discharge their duty to their Queen and Country, hereby claim all their undoubted rights and privileges, especially that they have freedom of speech in their debates, access to your person at all seasonable times, and that their proceedings may receive from you the most favourable consideration."

The Government House Leader said:-

"Speaker, I am commanded by His Honour the Lieutenant Governor to declare to you that he freely confides in the duty and attachment of the Assembly to Her Majesty's Person and Government and, not doubting that the proceedings will be conducted with wisdom, temperance and prudence, he grants and upon all occasions will recognize and allow the constitutional privileges.

I am commanded also to assure you that the Assembly shall have ready access to His Honour upon all suitable occasions, and that their proceedings, as well as your words and actions, will constantly receive from him the most favourable construction."

His Honour the Lieutenant Governor was pleased to open the First Session of the Fortieth Parliament by reading the Speech from the Throne (Sessional Paper No. 1).

Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislative Assembly, ladies and gentlemen, it is a great privilege to welcome all of you to the first session of the 40th Parliament of Ontario.

Before proceeding, it is my honour to extend warm congratulations and very best wishes to all parliamentarians on behalf of her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, Queen of Canada.

And while I have this opportunity, let me say how much I am looking forward to two important milestones in 2012: the 60th anniversary of Her Majesty’s accession to the Throne and the bicentennial of the War of 1812.

I encourage all Ontarians to celebrate and reflect on these important milestones in the year ahead.

Mr. Speaker, this is a historic place.

It is an important symbol of our democracy.

But it is more than that.

It is a living, breathing institution — one that continues to grow, and evolve.

It continues to welcome new members and new ideas.

It continues to speak to the needs of successive generations of Ontario families.

Against the backdrop of World Wars, the Great Depression, constitutional crises and recessions …
The Speech from the Throne has always been a moment for Ontario governments to reflect on their challenges and opportunities, set out their priorities, and call together Ontarians to strengthen our province.

I find that very inspiring.

So it is with great pleasure that I welcome our members.

And especially, our newest members.

Ours is a time of significant global change, upheaval and uncertainty.

Many fear that the world’s largest trading block — the European Union — is on the verge of recession as it struggles to deal with its ongoing debt crisis.

For the world’s largest economy and our biggest trading partner, the United States, overcoming their economic challenges will also take many years and great effort.

We don’t fully know what the global economic uncertainty means for Ontario, and for our families, yet.

But we do know that as a result of pressures from outside Ontario, our economy continues to face enormous challenges.

And here at home, we still have too many people looking for work.

Simply put, our world has entered into a time of slower growth.

And we expect that slower pace of growth to continue throughout the four-year mandate given to this Parliament.

One of the paradoxes of this time, however, is this: while the global economy lags, innovation continues to surge ahead at a staggering and unprecedented pace.

In areas such as communications, automotive technology and clean energy, changes are coming quickly, and in profound ways reshaping the way we live our lives.

For example, 77 per cent of people over the age of 65 have embraced the Information Age and are now on the web.

In the first quarter of this year, sales of hybrid and electric vehicles grew twice as fast as conventional car sales.

And, last year, more money was invested in renewable technologies worldwide than in fossil fuels.

So, while the challenges facing Ontario in the global economy are considerable, there are also opportunities to be seized.

And it’s necessary to seize those opportunities — not to strengthen our economy for its own sake, or to improve the lives of a select few — but so that all our families have opportunities of their own.

That’s why — for the next four years — your government will focus its efforts on strengthening Ontario’s economy and creating jobs.

At the same time, it will continue to protect the gains Ontarians have made, together, recognizing that quality hospitals, good schools and strong public services are the foundation of a strong economy and a good quality of life.

To that end, your government will implement the plan it campaigned on — and Ontarians elected it to carry out — as a strong, steady government.

Your government will do so in the context of our new, global economic reality — recognizing that priority must be given to those parts of the plan that best address the immediate needs of Ontario families as it works to steadily improve Ontario’s economy.
It will do so knowing that tax reforms undertaken by your government have been touted by Forbes magazine and the World Bank as key factors that have positioned our economy to grow — and add new jobs.

And it will do so working with all members of this House — recognizing that at a time of global economic uncertainty, Ontario families need their leaders to work together.

Your government sees this Parliament as a tremendous opportunity for all members to strengthen our province, together.

To do that, your government will move forward with its economic plan.

First, your government will continue to build a stronger, more competitive workforce.

That starts with our youngest learners.

Your government is committed to ensuring that 250,000 Ontario four- and five-year-olds will be enrolled in North America’s first full-day kindergarten program by 2014.

And it will continue to raise test scores and graduation rates.

And with about 200,000 more students learning today than eight years ago, your government will continue building on that success.

That is because we know that 70 per cent of all new jobs in the global economy will require postsecondary education and training.

So your government is creating 60,000 new spaces in our colleges and universities to ensure that every qualified Ontario student who wants to go to college or university can do so.

To keep tuition affordable and within the reach of all Ontarians, your government will reduce the average college and university tuition by 30 per cent for families earning less than $160,000 per year.

Students will receive this support for the semester beginning January 1, 2012.

To ensure more students in more communities across Ontario have access to quality learning, closer to home, your government will move forward with the selection of three sites for new undergraduate campuses.

And to help those who lose their jobs find new jobs, your government will ensure that its successful Second Career program has the resources it needs.

Your government will continue to work hard to close the socio-economic gap between Aboriginal people and non-Aboriginal Ontarians.

And it will continue to call on the federal government to work with First Nations, other Aboriginal partners and the province to improve education supports for Aboriginal students.

Second, your government will continue to make investments in infrastructure.

Building modern, efficient infrastructure creates jobs and makes our economy more productive and improves our quality of life.

That’s why, together with hardworking Ontarians, your government is building hospitals and schools.

It is why, together, we are building new roads and public transit as well as a modern electricity system with new transmission lines and electricity generation.

Your government has already committed to new transit in Toronto, Ottawa and Kitchener-Waterloo, a new subway to York University and Vaughan, and a rail link between Pearson Airport and Union Station.

The next step in that transit plan will be the introduction of two-way, all-day GO train service — which will help keep Ontarians living in the GTA and Greater Golden Horseshoe moving while creating 68,000 new jobs.
Third, your government will continue to aggressively pursue new investment in the Ontario economy.

Your government remains fully committed to clean energy and the 50,000 new, good jobs in one of the world’s fastest-growing economic sectors. These jobs are being created by its Green Energy Act in communities across Ontario.

There are other opportunities for growth as well.

In Ontario’s North, the mining sector is experiencing a historic and exciting boom. Your government remains fully committed to turning the vast, untapped potential of the Ring of Fire into good, leading-edge northern jobs.

And your government will continue to strengthen trade ties in growing international markets like India and China.

In a global economy, one of the best ways to create jobs here is to sell our products and services over there.

Fourth, your government will continue to focus on improving quality of life for our families.

That means making things a bit easier when it comes to expenses and improving services — like heath care — that families rely on.

In the case of our seniors, those two imperatives go hand-in-hand.

Your government will introduce a Healthy Homes Renovation Tax Credit worth up to $1,500 annually.

This would make it more affordable for our seniors to make home improvements like adding a ramp, walk-in tub or stairlift.

In combination with this new tax credit, your government will move to increase home care services for seniors.

These two initiatives would improve seniors’ quality of life by allowing them to stay in their own homes longer and provide a real, tangible benefit to taxpayers by saving long-term care costs.

The new tax credit would also create jobs in the home renovation sector as workers begin taking on these projects.

These are the kinds of solutions your government will undertake as it seeks to both provide excellent health care for families and control costs for taxpayers.

That’s also why your government will press for a new, 10-year Health Accord with the federal government, with priorities, accountability and clear goals, including health care reforms designed to meet the needs of our growing population of seniors.

Your government will also undertake specific measures to help more Ontario families manage their home expenses.

As part of a package of reforms that includes a reduction in tuition for middle- and lower-income families, a home renovation tax credit and scheduled tax cuts for families and businesses, your government will also continue to take 10 per cent off the total cost of electricity on bills through the Clean Energy Benefit.

And your government remains committed to uploading services from municipalities to give municipal taxpayers a much-needed break.

Your government also knows that Ontario’s wealth is not just economic — it is found in our abundance of natural beauty and resources, and we all have a duty to protect it.

That’s why your government will follow through on its goal to become the continent’s water innovation leader by 2015 and work with environmental experts and community groups to develop and introduce a Great Lakes Protection Act.
These and other measures enhance the affordability and quality of life in Ontario. And this, in turn, attracts the world’s top talent and new investment in jobs and growth.

Fifth, your government will move forward with a prudent, balanced-budget plan.

Your government remains committed to returning the province’s budget back to balance by 2017–2018.

Your government is on track to reduce the Ontario Public Service by five per cent by March 2012.

Reducing the size of the Ontario Public Service by an additional two per cent by 2014 will save a total of $500 million.

Your government will also find $200 million in savings at major agencies by 2014.

Your government recognizes that additional, unforeseen expenditures may arise as we move forward.

However, any new spending that is not part of your government’s current plan will need to come from savings realized elsewhere.

These and other details will be further described in the government’s Fall Economic Statement to be released tomorrow.

In addition, your government will receive a report from Don Drummond in the next few months.

That report will make recommendations on ways to eliminate the deficit and ensure that Ontario has the fiscal capacity to support strong schools and hospitals, even as worldwide economic growth slows.

Your government looks forward to that report and discussing its findings in this legislature. It’s hoped that Mr. Drummond’s report will spur a mature, thoughtful debate that contributes toward your government’s overall objectives.

Mr. Drummond will challenge all those elected to this legislature to bring forward their best ideas to help your government balance the Budget, control spending growth and deliver for Ontario families.

This challenge creates new opportunities for all Ontarians to contribute their ideas to help transform the way your government works. Your government can and will find ways to deliver its services more efficiently and effectively.

With health care consuming an ever-increasing part of the Budget and with the growing pressure created by our aging population, many Ontarians fear for the future of health care.

Your government commits itself wholeheartedly to the exciting task of renewing and reforming health care for the benefit of our generation and future generations of Ontarians.

As your government moves forward to renew health care, strengthen Ontario’s workforce, build infrastructure, strengthen trade ties, improve Ontario families’ quality of life and return our provincial budget to balance, all members of this House will be called upon to work together to achieve that plan.

Where there are good ideas, your government will adopt them.

Where members are willing to work together to strengthen our economy and create jobs, your government will welcome the opportunity to work with them.

Your government rejects the politics of division and rancour and will oppose measures that do not serve to move Ontarians forward, together.

Because your government believes that what matters in these times are not the opinions that divide the members of this House but the greater goal shared by all its members: building a stronger Ontario.

Building a stronger province requires us to abide by the values that have made Ontario great, and protecting the gains we have made, together.

So in meeting the challenges before us, your government will be guided by key principles.
It will protect health care and education as the most important public services. Reforms will not compromise quality.

It will also reject across-the-board reductions because these would mean deep cuts to health care and education.

Any reforms adopted must lead to better value for money through improved efficiencies and greater productivity.

The government will not consider tax increases or privatize public health care.

And finally, your government will not pursue austerity measures that harm our economy.

As we seek opportunities for the future, we are reassured by history.

For it teaches us that, through the ages, societies have faced challenges similar to ours and, with ingenuity, resilience and compassion, prevailed.

As Abraham Lincoln once said:

“The dogmas of the quiet past, are inadequate to the stormy present. The occasion is piled high with difficulty, and we must rise with the occasion. As our case is new, so we must think anew, and act anew.”

These are serious times.

And they demand that all members of this House devote themselves to a serious plan, and a common goal. Ontario requires a strong, steady government focused on good jobs and a stronger economy for all our families — including our most vulnerable.

Ontario families are looking to this House to deliver, today, as it has done in the past. They need to know that their government is there for them.

They need to know we are going to tackle our challenges, and seize opportunities by working together — the Ontario Way — just as Ontarians themselves have throughout our history.

When the recession hit, your government did not waver in its strong support for the schools and health care Ontario families count on.

It worked to retrain those who had lost their jobs …

It partnered with industry and the federal government to save the auto sector, protecting jobs and businesses.

And it seized exciting new opportunities in clean energy, creating tens of thousands of new jobs for Ontario families.

As the world economy struggles in the aftermath of a terrible recession…

As Ontario experiences these global aftershocks…

The priorities of this government are — and will remain — the priorities of Ontarians:

A great quality of life for our families.

The security and confidence that come with a good job.

And a bright future for all our children.

Inspired by Ontarians, your government will continue to rise to the challenges before us.

When Ontario was confronted with deteriorating public services, your government acted.

Now, Ontario has one of the best public education systems in the world and the shortest wait times for key surgical procedures in the country.

When the global economy was ravaged by a recession, your government acted.
Now, Ontario has a new tax system that makes us a magnet for foreign investment and job creation.

Confronted with today's challenge of providing world class public services and a balanced budget in a time of slow growth, your government will act, once again.

Now, more than ever, in these times of uncertainty, the people of Ontario call upon all the members of this legislature to give them their best by working hard and working together.

They call upon you to lead with vision and with hope.

And your government will not let the people of Ontario down.

Thank you.

November 22, 2011

Monsieur le Président, Mesdames et Messieurs les députés, Mesdames et Messieurs, c’est un grand privilège pour moi de vous souhaiter la bienvenue à la première session de la 40e législature de la province de l’Ontario.

Avant de commencer, j’ai l’honneur de présenter mes chaleureuses félicitations et mes meilleurs voeux à tous les députés au nom de sa Majesté la Reine Elizabeth II, reine du Canada.

Et puisque j’en ai la possibilité, j’aimerais dire à quel point j’ai hâte aux deux événements marquants qui se produiront en 2012 : le 60e anniversaire de l’accession au Trône de Sa Majesté et le bicentenaire de la Guerre de 1812.

J’invite tous les Ontariens et Ontariennes à célébrer ces importantes dates au cours de l’année.

Monsieur le Président, nous sommes dans un lieu historique.

Un symbole important de notre démocratie.

Mais c’est plus que cela.

C’est une institution vivante, dynamique, qui continue de croître, d’évoluer et d’accueillir de nouveaux députés et de nouvelles idées.

Une institution qui n’a cessé de veiller aux besoins de générations successives de familles ontariennes.

Durant les deux Guerres mondiales, la Grande Dépression, les crises constitutionnelles et les récessions, pour les gouvernements de l’Ontario, le discours du Trône a toujours été l’occasion de se pencher sur les défis et les possibilités qui se présentaient à eux, d’établir leurs priorités et d’inviter les Ontariennes et Ontariens à s’unir pour renforcer notre province.

Je trouve cela très inspirant.

C’est donc avec un immense plaisir que je souhaite la bienvenue à nos députés.

Et plus particulièrement à ceux qui viennent de se joindre à nous.

Nous vivons une époque de transformation, de bouleversements et d’incertitudes à l’échelle mondiale.

Nombreux sont ceux qui craignent que l’Union européenne, la plus grande zone d’échanges commerciaux du monde, n’entre en récession alors qu’elle peine à régler sa crise de la dette.

Il faudra aussi de nombreuses années et beaucoup d’efforts aux États-Unis, la plus grande économie mondiale et notre principal partenaire commercial, pour se sortir de la crise économique.

Nous ne connaissons pas encore toutes les conséquences de l’incertitude économique mondiale sur l’Ontario et les familles.

Mais nous savons que notre économie devra continuer à relever des défis qui proviennent de l’extérieur de l’Ontario.

Ici, en Ontario, trop de gens sont encore à la recherche d’un emploi.
Autrement dit, le monde vient d’entamer une période de croissance plus lente.

Et nous nous attendons à ce que ce rythme de croissance ralentie se poursuive tout au long du mandat de quatre ans que cette Assemblée législative a reçu.

Toutefois, voici l’un des paradoxes de notre époque : alors que l’économie mondiale stagne, les innovations continuent de plus belle, à un rythme effréné et sans précédent.

Dans des domaines comme les communications, la technologie automobile et l’énergie propre, des changements s’opèrent rapidement et transforment radicalement nos modes de vie.

Par exemple, 77 pour 100 des personnes âgées de plus de 65 ans sont entrées de plain pied dans l’ère informatique et naviguent désormais sur Internet.

Au cours du premier trimestre de cette année, les ventes de véhicules hybrides et électriques se sont accrues deux fois plus vite que celles des automobiles conventionnelles.

Et l’an dernier, partout dans le monde, plus d’argent a été investi dans les technologies renouvelables que dans les combustibles fossiles.

Par conséquent, malgré l’ampleur des défis que pose l’économie mondiale pour l’Ontario, il y a des occasions à saisir.

Et nous nous devons de les saisir, pas seulement pour renforcer notre économie ou améliorer la vie de quelques privilégiés, mais pour que toutes les familles ontariennes puissent en profiter aussi.

C’est pourquoi, au cours des quatre prochaines années, votre gouvernement concentrera ses efforts sur le renforcement de l’économie ontarienne et la création d’emplois.

En même temps, il continuera de protéger les gains que les Ontariennes et Ontariens ont réalisés ensemble, sachant que des hôpitaux et des écoles de grande qualité et des services publics fiables sont les assises d’une solide économie et d’une bonne qualité de vie.

C’est dans ce but que votre gouvernement, qui se veut fort et stable, appliquera le plan qui était au cœur de sa campagne et pour lequel les Ontariennes et Ontariens l’ont élu.

Votre gouvernement le fera dans le contexte de la nouvelle réalité économique mondiale, sachant qu’il devra donner la priorité aux éléments de son plan qui répondent le mieux aux besoins immédiats des familles ontariennes alors qu’il s’emploiera à améliorer l’économie provinciale.

Il le fera, sachant que la revue Forbes et la Banque mondiale considèrent ses réformes fiscales comme des facteurs clés qui permettent à notre économie de croître et de créer des emplois.

Il le fera, de concert avec tous les membres de cette assemblée, sachant qu’en période d’incertitude économique mondiale, il est essentiel pour les familles ontariennes que leurs dirigeants unissent leurs efforts.

Pour votre gouvernement, cette législature constitue un moyen extraordinaire pour tous les députés de s’allier afin de renforcer notre province.

À cette fin, votre gouvernement mettra en œuvre son plan économique.

Premièrement, il continuera de former une main-d’œuvre plus forte, plus compétitive.

En commençant par les apprenants les plus jeunes.

Votre gouvernement est déterminé à faire en sorte que d’ici 2014, 250 000 jeunes Ontariennes et Ontariens âgés de quatre et cinq ans soient admis au tout premier programme de maternelle et de jardin d’enfants à plein temps d’Amérique du Nord.

En outre, il poursuivra les mesures visant à améliorer les résultats aux tests et les taux de diplomation.
Nous savons aussi que 70 pour 100 des nouveaux emplois dans l’économie mondiale nécessiteront une formation et des études postsecondaires.

Votre gouvernement a donc décidé de créer 60 000 nouvelles places dans les collèges et universités de la province, afin de permettre à tous les élèves qui en ont les compétences et qui le souhaitent de faire des études supérieures.

Afin que les frais de scolarité des collèges et des universités restent abordables pour tous les Ontariens et Ontariennes, votre gouvernement les réduira de 30 pour 100 en moyenne pour les familles qui gagnent moins de 160 000 $ par an.

Les étudiantes et étudiants recevront ce soutien pour le semestre qui débutera le 1er janvier 2012.

Pour que davantage d’étudiantes et d’étudiants dans un plus grand nombre de localités de la province aient accès à des programmes d’éducation de qualité plus près de chez eux, votre gouvernement choisira l’emplacement de trois nouveaux campus offrant des programmes de premier cycle.

Par ailleurs, pour aider les personnes qui perdent leur emploi à retrouver du travail, votre gouvernement veillera à ce que le programme Deuxième carrière dispose des ressources dont il a besoin.

Votre gouvernement continuera de travailler fort pour combler l’écart socio-économique entre les peuples autochtones et les Ontariens non-autochtones.

Et il va continuer de demander au gouvernement fédéral de travailler avec les Premières Nations, les autres partenaires autochtones et la province afin d’améliorer le soutien à l’éducation pour les étudiants autochtones.

Deuxièmement, votre gouvernement continuera d’investir dans l’infrastructure.

Quand on construit une infrastructure moderne et efficace, on crée des emplois et on améliore la productivité et la qualité de la vie.

C’est pourquoi votre gouvernement construit, en collaboration avec les Ontariennes et Ontariens, des hôpitaux et des écoles.

C’est pourquoi, ensemble, nous construisons de nouvelles routes, élargissons les transports en commun et bâtissons un réseau d’électricité moderne, doté de nouvelles lignes de transmission et produisant plus d’énergie.

Votre gouvernement s’est déjà engagé à agrandir le réseau de transport en commun d’Ottawa, de Kitchener-Waterloo et de Toronto, où une des lignes de métro sera prolongée jusqu’à l’Université York et Vaughan et une ligne ferroviaire reliera l’aéroport Pearson à la gare Union.

La prochaine étape de ce plan de transport consistera à instaurer un service ferroviaire GO aller-retour tout au long de la journée, ce qui facilitera le transport des habitants de la RGT et de la région élargie du Golden Horseshoe, et permettra de créer 68 000 emplois.

Troisièmement, votre gouvernement continuera de rechercher activement de nouveaux investissements dans l’économie de la province.

Votre gouvernement maintient son engagement à l’égard des énergies propres, l’un des secteurs économiques qui s’accroissent le plus rapidement au monde, et des 50 000 nouveaux emplois de qualité envisagés pour ce secteur. C’est grâce à sa Loi sur l’énergie verte que de tels emplois se créent actuellement un peu partout dans les localités de l’Ontario.

Il existe aussi d’autres possibilités de croissance.

Dans le Nord de l’Ontario, le secteur minier connaît un essor historique et exaltant. Votre gouvernement demeure résolu à transformer le vaste potentiel inexploité du Cercle de feu en des emplois de qualité à la fine pointe de la technologie dans cette région de la province.
Et votre gouvernement continuera de renforcer ses liens commerciaux avec des marchés internationaux en plein essor comme l’Inde et la Chine parce que dans une économie mondiale, les échanges internationaux sont essentiels à la création d’emplois chez soi.

Quatrièmement, votre gouvernement poursuivra ses efforts pour améliorer la qualité de vie des familles ontariennes.

Cela signifie qu’il faudra simplifier les choses au chapitre des dépenses et améliorer les services, comme les soins de santé, sur lesquels les familles comptent tant.

En ce qui concerne les personnes âgées, ces deux impératifs sont indissociables.

Votre gouvernement proposera un crédit d’impôt pour l’aménagement du logement axé sur le bien-être d’une valeur pouvant atteindre 1 500 $ par an.

Cette mesure donnerait aux personnes âgées les moyens d’aménager leur logement, par exemple, en installant une rampe, une baignoire à accès latéral ou un monte-escalier.

De plus, votre gouvernement fera le nécessaire afin d’augmenter les services de soins à domicile pour les aînés.

Ces deux initiatives amélioreraient la qualité de vie des personnes âgées en leur permettant de vivre chez elles plus longtemps et en offrant aux contribuables un avantage réel et concret grâce aux économies qui seront réalisées dans le domaine des soins de longue durée.

Le nouveau crédit d’impôt permettrait aussi de créer des emplois dans le secteur de la rénovation domiciliaire lorsque les projets d’aménagement seront entrepris.

Ce type de mesures s’inscrit dans le cadre des efforts que votre gouvernement entend déployer pour fournir d’excellents soins de santé aux familles et maîtriser les coûts pour les contribuables.

C’est aussi la raison pour laquelle votre gouvernement exhortera le gouvernement fédéral à conclure une nouvelle entente de 10 ans sur les soins de santé, comprenant des priorités, des responsabilités et des objectifs clairs, ainsi qu’une réforme du système de santé pour répondre aux besoins des personnes âgées de plus en plus nombreuses.

Votre gouvernement prendra aussi des mesures particulières pour aider davantage de familles ontariennes à gérer leurs dépenses.

Les diverses réformes entreprises par votre gouvernement comprennent une diminution des droits de scolarité pour les familles à moyen et à faible revenu, un crédit d’impôt pour l’aménagement du logement, les baisses d’impôt déjà annoncées pour les familles et les entreprises, et une réduction de 10 pour 100 du coût total de l’électricité facturée grâce à la Prestation pour l’énergie propre.

Et votre gouvernement a toujours l’intention de reprendre en charge certains services qui avaient été confiés aux municipalités afin d’alléger le fardeau des contribuables municipaux, qui en ont bien besoin.

Par ailleurs, votre gouvernement sait que la richesse de l’Ontario n’est pas seulement économique, mais qu’elle réside aussi dans la beauté et l’abondance des ressources naturelles de notre province; il est de notre devoir de protéger cette richesse.

C’est pour cette raison que votre gouvernement poursuivra son objectif de devenir, d’ici 2015, un chef de file en Amérique du Nord pour ses innovations en matière d’eau et qu’il travaille avec des spécialistes de l’environnement et des groupes communautaires à l’établissement et à l’adoption d’une loi sur la protection des Grands Lacs.

Ces mesures, ainsi que d’autres, diminuent le coût de la vie et améliorent la qualité de vie dans notre province, ce qui, en retour, attire les meilleurs éléments du monde et des investissements créateurs d’emplois et de croissance.

Cinquièmement, votre gouvernement s’appliquera à établir un plan budgétaire prudent et équilibré.

Votre gouvernement reste déterminé à rééquilibrer le budget de la province d’ici 2017-2018.
Et il est en bonne voie de réduire la fonction publique de l’Ontario de 5 pour 100 d’ici mars 2012.

En réduisant la taille de la fonction publique de l’Ontario d’un pourcentage supplémentaire de 2 pour 100 d’ici 2014, votre gouvernement réalisera des économies de plus de 500 millions de dollars auxquelles s’ajouteront les 200 millions de dollars d’économies prévues pour les principaux organismes gouvernementaux d’ici 2014 également.

Votre gouvernement sait pertinemment que des dépenses imprévues peuvent se produire.

Toutefois, les nouvelles dépenses non prévues dans le plan de votre gouvernement devront être compensées par des économies réalisées ailleurs.

Tous ces détails et bien d’autres encore seront présentés de façon plus approfondie dans l’énoncé économique d’automne qui sera rendu public demain.

Par ailleurs, votre gouvernement recevra un rapport de Don Drummond au cours des prochains mois.

Ce document contiendra des recommandations sur les façons d’éliminer le déficit et de donner à l’Ontario les moyens nécessaires pour financer des écoles et des hôpitaux de qualité, malgré le ralentissement de la croissance économique à l’échelle mondiale.

Votre gouvernement a hâte de recevoir le rapport de M. Drummond et d’en discuter avec les membres de cette assemblée. Il espère que ce document servira de point de départ à un dialogue responsable et circonspect qui contribuera à la réalisation de ses objectifs.

M. Drummond demandera à tous les députés de présenter leurs meilleures idées afin d’aider le gouvernement à équilibrer son budget, contrôler la croissance des dépenses et offrir des services aux familles de l’Ontario.

Ce défi offre aux Ontariennes et aux Ontariens la possibilité de faire des suggestions pour aider le gouvernement à transformer la façon dont il fonctionne.Votre gouvernement peut trouver, et trouvera, des moyens de fournir ses services de manière plus économique et plus efficace.

Étant donné la place de plus en plus importante que les soins de santé occupent dans le budget et les pressions croissantes causées par le vieillissement de la population, beaucoup d’Ontariennes et d’Ontariens craignent pour l’avenir des soins de santé.

Votre gouvernement s’est engagé à faire tout en son pouvoir pour moderniser et réformer le système de santé pour le bien de la génération actuelle d’Ontariennes et d’Ontariens et celles de demain.

Pendant que votre gouvernement s’emploiera à moderniser le système de santé, à renforcer la main-d’œuvre de la province, à bâtir l’infrastructure, à consolider les liens commerciaux, à améliorer la qualité de vie des familles ontariennes et à rééquilibrer le budget provincial, nous en appellerons à tous les membres de l’Assemblée législative pour qu’ils coopèrent à la réalisation de ce plan.

Si de bonnes idées lui sont présentées, votre gouvernement les adoptera.

Si les députés sont prêts à coopérer pour renforcer notre économie et créer des emplois, votre gouvernement sera ravi de travailler avec eux.

Votre gouvernement rejette toute politique de discorde et de rancœur et fera obstacle aux mesures qui empêcheraient les Ontariennes et Ontariens d’avancer, ensemble.

Car pour votre gouvernement, ce qui compte actuellement, ce ne sont pas les opinions qui divisent les membres de cette assemblée, mais un objectif commun plus vaste : édifier un Ontario plus fort.

Pour édifier une province plus forte, nous devons respecter les valeurs qui ont contribué à faire de l’Ontario la grande province qu’elle est devenue et protéger les gains que nous avons réalisés ensemble.

Par conséquent, pour surmonter les défis qui l’attendent, votre gouvernement se laissera guider par des principes importants.
Il protégera ces services publics essentiels que sont la santé et l’éducation. Les réformes n’en compromettront pas la qualité.

Il se refusera aussi à tailler dans les dépenses de façon généralisée, car cela pourrait signifier des coupes profondes dans la santé et l’éducation.

Toutes les réformes qui seront mises en œuvre devront optimiser les ressources en améliorant l’efficacité et la productivité.

Le gouvernement n’envisagera pas d’augmenter les impôts ni de privatiser les services de santé.

Enfin, votre gouvernement ne prendra pas de mesures d’austérité qui nuiraient à l’économie de la province.

Nous pouvons chercher des occasions pour l’avenir avec l’assurance que nous donnent les leçons du passé.

Car l’histoire nous apprend qu’à travers les âges, les sociétés ont traversé des périodes difficiles semblables à celle que nous connaissons aujourd’hui et qu’elles ont réussi à les surmonter en faisant preuve d’ingéniosité, de résilience et de compassion.

Comme Abraham Lincoln l’a dit un jour :

« Les dogmes du calme passé ne conviennent plus à l’orageux présent. Une montagne de difficultés se dresse devant nous et nous devons nous élever à sa hauteur. Notre situation est nouvelle. Il nous faut penser à neuf et agir à neuf. »

Nous vivons des moments très graves qui exigent que tous les membres de cette assemblée s’appliquent à établir un plan rigoureux et à réaliser un objectif commun.

L’Ontario a besoin d’un gouvernement fort et stable ayant pour vocation de créer des emplois et de renforcer l’économie pour toutes les familles, y compris les plus vulnérables.

Les familles ontariennes s’attendent à ce que cette assemblée produise des résultats, aujourd’hui, comme elle l’a fait par le passé.

Elles ont besoin de savoir qu’elles peuvent compter sur leur gouvernement.

Elles ont besoin de savoir que nous allons relever les défis et saisir les occasions en travaillant ensemble, à la manière de l’Ontario, comme les Ontariennes et Ontariens l’ont toujours fait tout au long de l’histoire de notre province.

Lorsque la récession a frappé, votre gouvernement n’a pas vacillé et a continué de financer les écoles et le système de santé dont les familles ontariennes ont tant besoin.

Il a fait le nécessaire pour que ceux et celles qui ont perdu leur travail puissent suivre une nouvelle formation.

Il s’est associé à l’industrie et au gouvernement fédéral pour sauver le secteur automobile, et protéger les emplois et les entreprises.

Et il a saisi de nouveaux débouchés prometteurs dans le secteur de l’énergie propre, créant des dizaines de milliers d’emplois pour les familles ontariennes.

Alors que l’économie mondiale se débat au lendemain d’une terrible récession, alors que l’Ontario subit le contrecoup de cette crise mondiale, les priorités de ce gouvernement sont, et continueront d’être, les priorités des Ontariennes et des Ontariens :

Une excellente qualité de vie pour nos familles.

La sécurité et la tranquillité d’esprit associées à un bon emploi.

Et un brillant avenir pour tous nos enfants.
S’inspirant des Ontariennes et des Ontariens, votre gouvernement continuera de relever les défis qui se présenteront à lui.

Lorsque l’Ontario a été confronté à la détérioration des services publics, votre gouvernement a agi.

Aujourd’hui, l’Ontario possède l’un des meilleurs systèmes d’éducation publics au monde et affiche les temps d’attentes les plus courts au pays pour des interventions chirurgicales importantes.

Lorsque l’économie mondiale a été ravagée par la récession, votre gouvernement a agi.

Aujourd’hui, l’Ontario a un nouveau régime fiscal qui fait de notre province un lieu propice aux investissements étrangers et à la création d’emplois.

Face au défi de fournir des services publics de calibre mondial et d’équilibrer le budget en cette période de croissance ralentie, votre gouvernement agira encore.

Aujourd’hui, plus que jamais en cette période d’incertitude, les Ontariennes et Ontariens demandent aux membres de cette assemblée de faire de leur mieux en travaillant fort et en coopérant.

Ils les exhortent à faire preuve de vision et à leur donner de l’espoir.

Votre gouvernement sera à la hauteur des attentes des Ontariennes et des Ontariens.

Merci.

His Honour was then pleased to retire.

PRAYERS

9:00 A.M.

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

Yesterday, Mr. Shurman introduced “Bill 3, An Act to provide for the resolution of labour disputes involving companies that provide public transit services to The Regional Municipality of York”.

I have had an opportunity to review the Bill and have observed that it has been put forward with two co-sponsors, Mr. Klees and Mrs. Munro.

Standing Order 69 provides for the co-sponsorship of private members’ public bills, but states that such bills “may be co-sponsored by up to one member from each of the recognized Parties, and by any independent member.”

Because there is no provision for co-sponsors of a private members’ public bill to be members of the same recognized Party, I must therefore find the Bill to be out of order and have directed that it be removed from the Orders and Notices Paper.
ORDERS OF THE DAY

Amendment to the Motion for an Address in Reply to the Speech of His Honour the Lieutenant Governor at the Opening of the Session.

Debate resumed and after some time, Mr. Milloy moved adjournment of the debate. Carried.

At 9:51 a.m., the Government House Leader indicated that no further morning business would be called and therefore the House recessed.

On a Point of Privilege being raised by the Member for Lanark–Frontenac–Lennox and Addington with respect to the appointment of the membership of the Assembly’s committees, the Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

The issue raised by the Member for Lanark–Frontenac–Lennox and Addington has in fact been a matter for recent discussion among those around this place with a role or interest in the business of the House.

First, what the Member raises is more appropriately a Point of Order, not a Point of Privilege, and so I will address it as such.

Standing Order 108 provides for the appointment of the membership of the committees within the first 10 sessional days of a Parliament. Today is, of course, only the fourth day of this new Parliament, and so the Member simply does not have a valid Point of Order.

However, let me address this issue in a little detail.

The committees of this Legislature, and there are nine of them provided for in the Standing Orders, exist as permanent bodies by virtue of their continuing orders of reference in Standing Order 108.

Without membership, however, the committees are obviously unable to perform any work. As mentioned, though, the House has given itself up to 10 days to assign members to its committees.

As permanent subordinate bodies of the Legislature, the committees are able to receive referrals of bills and other matters, as the House sees fit to make, whether or not committee membership has been struck. Indeed, the very structure of the Standing Orders contemplates that this can happen in that the House can consider business during its first 10 sitting days that could result in a referral to one of its committees.

If it does, such a committee is fully eligible to receive business from the House even without presently having members assigned to it at this time. Its members, once appointed, will simply inherit agenda items that preceded them to the committee.

As the Member has pointed out, this could even happen today in Private Members’ Public Business. I would point out that in fact this has already happened today. A few minutes ago, the Government House Leader tabled the 2011-2012 Estimates. Upon being tabled, they have been referred to the Standing Committee on Estimates by virtue of Standing Order 59.

This is perfectly in order, as would be the scenario the member has raised.

The House recessed at 11:37 a.m.

Rural school policy (Sessional Paper No. P-2) Mr. Wilson.

Moratorium on industrial wind development (Sessional Paper No. P-12) Mr. McDonell and Mr. O'Toole.

Funding research for bio-artificial kidney (Sessional Paper No. P-43) Mr. Leal.

The Deputy Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

Le Vice-Président a rendu la décision suivante:-

The Member for Willowdale has given notice of his intention to raise a point of privilege concerning statements he claims were made by the Members for Newmarket-Aurora and Nickel Belt at a press conference in the Legislature’s Media Studio earlier today.

I am prepared to rule on the point of privilege without hearing further from the Member for Willowdale, as Standing Order 21(d) permits me to do.

The member alleges that certain statements made during the press conference could serve to raise doubt and uncertainty in the minds of potential witnesses before legislative committees, resulting in a possible unwillingness of witnesses to offer their testimony and thereby undermining the full effectiveness of our committee system.

While there may exist a difference of opinion between him and other members about the nature and extent of protections available to witnesses of parliamentary committees, I cannot find a head of privilege that has been offended. The member’s disagreement with the statements of certain other members does not rise to the level of a prima facie case of privilege or contempt.

What the member raises is in fact a good subject of debate which, coincidentally, is set down for a segment of this afternoon’s consideration of Private Members’ Public Business, and I suggest that will be a better and appropriate forum for the Member for Willowdale to make his case to the House at that time.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' PUBLIC BUSINESS

Ms. Jones moved, Mme Jones propose,

Private Members’ Notice of Motion No. 11:- Avis de motion émanant des députées n° 11 :-

That, in the opinion of this House, the Standing Committee on the Legislative Assembly should, as part of the Standing Order study, consider the necessity of amendments to the Standing Orders or Legislative Assembly Act that would extend the protections, immunities, rights, and remedies of witnesses and participants in public inquiries to witnesses and participants in committee hearings, including any witness or participant subject to a confidentiality agreement who has information that is in the public interest for the committee to receive.

Debate arose. Il s’élève un débat.
Carried. Adoptée.
Mr. Vanthof moved, M. Vanthof propose,
Private Members’ Notice of Motion No. 9:- Avis de motion émanant des députés n° 9 :-
That, in the opinion of this House, a committee of the Legislative Assembly, with authority to meet at the call of the Chair, should be established as follows;
That the membership of the committee be comprised of every member of the Legislative Assembly whose electoral district lies north of the French River; and
That the committee be empowered to consider and report to the House its observations, opinions and recommendations on all policies and legislation of the province that directly impact Northern Ontario; and
To which any bills whose principal focus and impact affect Northern Ontario may be referred.
Debate arose. Il s’élève un débat.
Carried. Adoptée.

Mr. Zimmer moved, M. Zimmer propose,

ORDERS OF THE DAY
Second Reading of Bill 11, An Act respecting the continuation and establishment of development funds in order to promote regional economic development in eastern and southwestern Ontario.
Debate resumed.
Vote deferred on request of the Chief Government Whip.

On motion by Mr. Bradley, it was Ordered that the House adjourn.
The House adjourned at 4:45 p.m.
The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

The Member for Cambridge has given notice of his intention to raise a point of privilege. The member’s point relates to the passage on November 24, 2011, of his private members’ motion calling on the government to table a detailed plan relating to hospital expansion projects by March 1, 2012.

The member alleges that, since this plan was not tabled by that date, Thursday of last week, this represents a contempt of the Legislature.

I am prepared to rule on this point of privilege without hearing further from the Member for Cambridge, as Standing Order 21(d) permits me to do.

As is the case with all private members’ notices of motion, the one put forward last fall by the Member for Cambridge was preceded by the words, “In the opinion of this House”.

As the member noted in his written submission, House of Commons Procedure and Practice states that,

Hence, such motions which simply suggest that the government initiate a certain measure are generally phrased as follows: “That, in the opinion of this House, the government should consider …”. The government is not bound to adopt a specific policy or course of action as a result of the adoption of such a resolution since the House is only stating an opinion or making a declaration of purpose. This is in contrast to those motions whose object is to give a direction to committees, Members or officers of the House or to regulate House proceedings and, as such, are considered orders once adopted by the House.

It is settled in the Ontario Legislature that private members’ motions may only have the effect of stating an opinion of the House. In an October 24, 2001 ruling, Speaker Carr ruled that,

As members well know, private members' motions are typically framed so that if and when they carry, they constitute expressions of the opinion of the House; in other words, they are said to be non-binding. This same principle has been applied on several occasions during the time allotted to consideration of private member's public business when the Speaker has denied requests for unanimous consent to give third reading to a bill or to alter some later proceeding of the House. When Members are meeting for the purpose of considering private members' business, they cannot bind the House to a final decision on a matter. Were it otherwise, a government could easily take advantage of its majority and a time-limited private members' debate to pass motions which could, for example, amend the Standing Orders. This is clearly not the intended purpose of private members' public business.

The motion of the Member for Cambridge which passed last November was, as mentioned, framed in the typical and acceptable way for private members’ motions in this House. It is clear in our practice and precedent that such motions, when passed, serve to express an opinion of the Legislature but are not binding or directive. While one might like or expect requests such as the one embodied in the member’s motion to be complied with – and that is all it is, in effect; a request – there is no compulsion to do so.

I therefore find that the Member for Cambridge has not made out a prima facie case of privilege.

PRAYERS

The Speaker addressed the House:-

Having been in the Chair for a short period of time now, I have observed that the period of time allocated for the introduction of visitors is sometimes used as an occasion to insert preambles that both take up time and on occasion contain a political message.

I want to take this opportunity to remind Members that there is a short 5 minute time frame for introduction of visitors and it should be used for that purpose only. While I don't want to have to cut any Member off in the course of an introduction, Members who abuse this proceeding in the manner I have described will leave me with no choice. I know that all Members will be mindful of this as we go forward.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Second Reading of Bill 13, An Act to amend the Education Act with respect to bullying and other matters.

Debate resumed and after some time the House recessed at 10:15 a.m.

10:30 A.M.
The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

On Monday, March 26, 2012, the Member for Cambridge (Mr. Leone) rose on a question of privilege concerning statements made by the Minister of Health and Long-Term Care in the course of her responses to oral questions in last Thursday's Question Period. The responses in question dealt with the Minister's ability to act during the election period on irregularities in the business practices and operations of the Ornge air ambulance service, and with the role of her Ministry on that file during the election period. The Member for Cambridge invited the Speaker to make a finding that the Minister's statements amounted to a \textit{prima facie} case of contempt on the basis that the Minister deliberately misled the House. The Government House Leader (Mr. Milloy) and the Member for Simcoe-Grey (Mr. Wilson) also spoke to the matter.
Having had an opportunity to review last Thursday's Hansard, the notice submitted by the Member for Cambridge, the remarks of the Members who spoke to the question of privilege, Tuesday's attempt by the Minister to clarify her responses, and the parliamentary authorities, I am now prepared to rule on the matter.

As noted by the Member for Cambridge, McGee's Parliamentary Practice in New Zealand identifies what needs to be established for the Speaker to find a prima facie case of contempt based on a member deliberately misleading the House. Pages 653 and 654 of the 3rd edition of this text state as follows:

There are three elements to be established when it is alleged that a member is in contempt by reason of a statement that the member has made: the statement must, in fact, have been misleading; it must be established that the member making the statement knew at the time the statement was made that it was incorrect; and, in making it, the member must have intended to mislead the House. The standard of proof demanded is the civil standard of proof on a balance of probabilities but, given the serious nature of the allegations, proof of a very high order. Recklessness in the use of words in debate, though reprehensible in itself, falls short of the standard required to hold a member responsible for deliberately misleading the House. The misleading of the House must not be concerned with a matter of such little or no consequence that is too trivial to warrant the House dealing with it. A misunderstanding of this nature should be cleared up on a point of order.

For a misleading of the House to be deliberate, there must be something in the nature of the incorrect statement that indicates an intention to mislead. Remarks made off the cuff in debate can rarely fall into this category, nor can matters about which the member can be aware only in an official capacity. But where the member can be assumed to have personal knowledge of the stated facts and made the statement in a situation of some formality (for example, by way of personal explanation), a presumption of an intention to mislead the House will more readily arise.

Satisfying the criteria for finding a prima facie case of contempt based on a deliberately misleading statement to the House is difficult to do and rarely achieved. As Speaker Carr indicated in a ruling (at page 102 of the Journals for June 17, 2002):

The threshold for finding a prima facie case of contempt against a Member of the Legislature, on the basis of deliberately misleading the House, is therefore set quite high and is very uncommon. It must involve a proved finding of an overt attempt to intentionally mislead the Legislature. In the absence of an admission from the Member accused of the conduct, or of tangible confirmation of the conduct, independently proved, a Speaker must assume that no honourable Members would engage in such behaviour or that, at most, inconsistent statements were the result of inadvertence or honest mistake.

In the case at hand, the Minister indicated that she was standing for election during the election period and had not been sworn in, and that the Ministry was operating in a caretaker role making it inappropriate for the Ministry to share the Auditor General's draft report on Ornge with the Minister during that period. She also indicated that "when a writ is dropped, the responsibility of the minister changes, and that the ministry is in charge of the operations." In a response to a subsequent question, she indicated that she took action shortly after she was sworn in as Minister in October 2011. Finally, the Minister indicated as follows:

... when the House is dissolved, when we are in that interim period between the writ dropping and the new cabinet being sworn in, there are limitations on the activities of ministers... [W]hen I was sworn in as minister in October, after the election, I was made aware of the issues that were examined by the auditor and I became aware that the auditor was having trouble getting information from the people at Ornge, so I called the Auditor General and I asked him about that.
Let me now assess these remarks. First, I accept that during the election period the caretaker convention acts as a restraint on some governmental activities. That being said, it is not for the Speaker to decide or rule on the ambit and application of the convention because Speakers traditionally avoid delving into constitutional and legal matters better left to governments, courts and litigants. Even if I could look into such matters, the Minister's remarks about the existence and application of that convention in the case at hand stand uncontradicted and therefore do not satisfy the test set out in the McGee text.

This brings me to the Minister's remarks to the effect that she was not sworn in during the election period, and that she was sworn in after the election. Many Members, myself included, were surprised by these remarks. If the Minister was referring to her not being re-sworn in as a Minister until after the election, this does not detract from the fact that, based on her 2009 appointment as Minister of Health and Long-Term Care, she would still have been in charge of her Ministry during the election period; she would have been in charge because Ministers normally retain their ministerial status during the election period so that the province is never without a government.

The brevity or incompleteness of the Minister's remarks on the matter of whether and when she was sworn in were unfortunate; she sought to rectify the confusion on Tuesday when she indicated that she had not intended to suggest that she was not the Minister during the election period, or to suggest that she was not responsible for overseeing Ontario's health care system during that period.

The important point about last Thursday's remarks and Tuesday's clarification was that the Minister did not concede - and no one has established - that she both made and intended to make a misleading or incorrect statement, or that she both made and intended to make irreconcilable statements to the House. Moreover, it is not enough to say that, in the cut-and-thrust of Question Period, a Minister's elaboration on or clarification of something the Minister said earlier in Question Period points to a strategy of misleading the House. What we are left with, then, is a disagreement as to the correct interpretation to be placed on the Minister's words, and as to the nature and application of the caretaker convention.

For the reasons I have indicated, the onerous threshold established by the parliamentary authorities on the subject of misleading statements has not been reached in the case at hand.

A prima facie case of contempt not having been established, I thank the Member for Cambridge for the thoughtful submissions in his notice. I also thank him, the Government House Leader, and the Member for Simcoe-Grey for speaking to this matter.

On Monday, March 26, the Member for Northumberland–Quinte West (Mr. Milligan) raised a point of privilege with respect to restrictions on his movement in the Legislative Building that he claimed he experienced on Thursday, March 22.

The Member for Northumberland–Quinte West recounted how he was making his way along the 2nd floor west hallway to a planned meeting in Room 230. As he came in the vicinity of the Government Caucus Room, Room 247, the Member says that he and the Member for Bruce–Grey–Owen Sound were “physically blocked” by an individual from moving down the hallway, apparently as a result of that person’s mistaken belief that he and the Member for Bruce–Grey–Owen Sound were in that area in order to seek access to an event then taking place in Room 247.

By the Member’s own account, once it was clarified that he and the Member for Bruce–Grey–Owen Sound were actually on their way to Room 230, they were allowed to pass without further difficulty. I will return to this issue in a moment.

During the time I heard this point of privilege last Monday, the Member for Beaches–East York recounted his own experience related to the event in Room 247. Though the Members for Northumberland–Quinte West and Bruce–Grey–Owen Sound were not seeking to enter Room 247, the Member for Beaches–East York was, apparently at around the same time the Member for Northumberland–Quinte West met the obstacle to his movement in that area.

The Member for Beaches–East York explained that, following a ceremony outside of the Legislative Building in commemoration of Greek Independence Day, to which all MPPs were invited, an open invitation was apparently given for all participants to attend a reception related to this event inside the Legislative Building in the Government Caucus Room, Room 247.

As intimated by the experience of the Member for Northumberland–Quinte West, this in fact was not intended to be a fully open event and it is now quite clear that non-government Members of the Assembly were not intended to have access to the event in Room 247, and in fact were not allowed to attend.

This issue is collateral to the point of privilege but I want to deal with it now.
First, I have no problem with the notion that the party caucus rooms are private spaces and that it is entirely up to each caucus to decide which individuals it is prepared to invite into its space. I think this is something all members accept and I don’t believe it is in dispute. Indeed, the Member for Beaches–East York is not making the claim that he had the right to enter Room 247 for the Greek Independence Day reception. However, it also does not seem to be contested that a rather open and unconditional invitation seems to have been communicated to those attending the ceremony out front of this Building to attend the reception. This was either a miscommunication or an unfortunate lapse, but the result was a situation that I have no reason to doubt caused the extreme embarrassment to the Member for Beaches–East York that he recounted to this House.

The matter arises from time-to-time as to difficulties MPPs sometimes have in attending or participating in events around the Legislative Assembly, events that are ostensibly either non-partisan or multi-partisan in nature. A recent example occurred in October of 2010, raised by the then-Member for Carleton–Mississippi Mills, with respect to an event in the Legislative Dining Room. The circumstances were not the same as those in this case, but the general principle is the same - the overall desire on the part of the Speaker for members from all parties to participate to the fullest extent possible in the various stakeholder events that occur on a regular basis at Queen’s Park.

As Speaker Peters said in his ruling at that time, “the overall success of such events is surely more likely to be achieved with good attendance by many members from all Parties”. Indeed, it was Speaker Peters’ action as a result of that incident that resulted in the placement of monitors in each of the Chamber lobbies that advise members of the various meetings, receptions and other events taking place at the Legislature.

In the face of a written apology subsequently received from the Government House Leader, I am prepared to accept that the embarrassing difficulty encountered by the Member for Beaches–East York was the result of a regrettable communication problem. However, I want to echo Speaker Peters’ sentiment from his ruling of 2010 and to strongly urge the organizers of such events in the future to avoid these situations.

We are all members of this Legislative Assembly, representative of many diverse communities across the province. One would hope that whatever partisan sentiments exist could be overcome in the interests of properly welcoming guests and dignitaries to this place, particularly when it is in celebration of something as universal as Greek Independence Day.

Now, I will return to the point of privilege raised by the Member for Northumberland–Quinte West that is centered around these same events. I cannot find that a prima facie case of privilege has been made out, for two reasons.

First, by the Member’s own version of the events, he was not obstructed in his movements in the Building so much as he was briefly delayed due to what was, as has been established with respect to the Member for Beaches–East York, and as confirmed in a letter from the Government House Leader, a misunderstanding. This delay was short and I believe it was the result of a genuine mix-up and not a deliberate effort to interfere with a Member of the Assembly.

Second, the Member was not making his way to a parliamentary proceeding. The Member’s written submission makes reference to a 2010 ruling by Speaker Peters concerning the 2010 Budget lock-up, in which it was stated,

For a prima facie case of privilege to be established, it is enough to ascertain that members wanted to attend the House and were at least for a time, and against their will, prevented from doing so. It is of no significance where such an obstruction occurred or what parliamentary proceeding members were prevented from attending.

The reference to “parliamentary proceeding” is important, and elsewhere in this 2010 ruling Speaker Peters explained why:
The second consideration on this matter is the issue of whether the alleged interference prevented members from attending to their parliamentary work. According to the procedural authorities and many previous Speakers’ rulings, parliamentary privilege protects members in the execution of their strictly parliamentary duties - not the constituency or other duties that may fairly be said to be part of their job descriptions. On this point, the 2nd edition of Maingot’s Parliamentary Privilege in Canada states the following (at pages 222 and 223):

“The interference, however, must not only obstruct the Member in his capacity as a Member, it must obstruct or allege to obstruct the Member in his parliamentary work.”

While I cannot find a prima facie case of privilege has been established, I do not want to leave the impression that I don’t take this matter seriously, or that it is somehow acceptable to impede or delay a member of the Legislative Assembly, so long as he or she is not headed to the Chamber or a committee meeting. No one has any business interfering with an MPP’s movement around the public areas of this Building except, perhaps, in the case of a safety or security issue, and even then only by authorized personnel acting under my authority. It is otherwise not acceptable and I was unhappy to learn that the events that gave rise to this point of privilege occurred.

I thank the Member for Northumberland–Quinte West for raising this matter as it has given me the opportunity to issue this caution.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

On a point of order being raised with respect to Standing Orders 55 and 56, the Acting Speaker (Mr. Miller (Hamilton East–Stoney Creek)) recessed the House for 5 minutes.

Upon his return, the Acting Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

This is an issue that has been raised on several occasions over the years.

It is true that the Standing Order uses the word “shall”, but it is also true, as previous Speakers have pointed out, that this procedure has been more or less disused for quite some time now.

When this has been raised before, other Speakers have noted that it is certainly useful to the Members to know in advance what the business of the day will be, but they have also noted that the Speaker cannot compel that this be done.

The point was also made by previous Speakers, and by contributors to this very point of order, that it is obviously a good practice, and of assistance to the House, for reasonable notice to be given of the day’s business.

I agree with those previous rulings.

Notice being preferable, the Government House Leader nevertheless has the ability to call any eligible item of business on the Order Paper.

Order G30 is therefore properly before the House at this time.

ORAL QUESTIONS

A Point of Order having been raised seeking the Speaker’s clarification on the admissibility of certain questions in Question Period, the Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

It is the longstanding practice of this House that matters before committee should be dealt with in committee.

I allowed the question because in my mind it had a connection to a matter that the House may be required to consider. I commend page 506 of O’Brien and Bosc’s House of Commons Procedure and Practice for a fuller discussion of this matter, where it says in part:

“When a question has been asked about a committee’s proceedings, Speakers have encouraged Members to rephrase their questions”.

Deuxième lecture du projet de loi 55, Loi visant à mettre en œuvre les mesures budgétaires et à édicter et à modifier diverses lois.

May 1, 2012

10:30 A.M.  10 H 30

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

On April 24, 2012, the Member for Burlington (Mrs. McKenna) rose on a point of privilege concerning the impact of automated telephone calls on her ability to carry out her MPP duties. The Government House Leader (Mr. Milloy), the Member for Parkdale–High Park (Ms. DiNovo), the Member for Simcoe–Grey (Mr. Wilson), the Member for Renfrew–Nipissing–Pembroke (Mr. Yakabuski), and the Member for Cambridge (Mr. Leone) also spoke to this matter.

Having had an opportunity to review the Hansard for that day, the information provided in the notice, and the relevant procedural authorities, I am now prepared to rule on the matter.

The Member’s point of privilege relates to automated telephone calls sent to thousands of constituents in her riding. The calls, which she claims are sponsored by the Ontario Liberal party, indicate that the Member was, at the behest of her party, planning to vote against the forthcoming Budget motion, thereby forcing an expensive, unwanted election and jeopardizing funding for a local hospital. The calls, which indicated that the Member needed to put families first, allowed constituents to share their concerns with her by pressing number 3 on their telephone keypad; this action would automatically connect them to the phone number of the Member’s office. The Member’s office was inundated with over 1,500 telephone calls that swamped its telephone lines and voicemail system.

According to the Member, this resulted in the following:

- Some constituents could not reach the Member.
- The Member had to deal with the telephone calls generated by the automated calls, instead of telephone calls from other constituents.
- There were service complaints that unjustly damaged her reputation with her constituents.

The Member was of the view that the automated calls obstructed and interfered with her parliamentary duties and therefore established a prima facie case of privilege.

Before determining whether there is a prima facie case based on obstruction, let me say first that I will not assess the veracity or tenor of the allegations and opinions made in the automated calls; it is not for the Speaker to say that they are misleading, inaccurate, false, or inflammatory. Given the political nature of their workplace, Members are often exposed to criticisms for their actions or intended actions. Dealing with allegations, opinions and criticisms is part of the job of being an MPP.

That being said, there can be no doubt that obstruction of or interference with a Member in respect of his or her parliamentary duties can be a matter of privilege. Many of the relevant authorities on the nature of obstruction were mentioned by the Members who spoke to the matter on Tuesday, and so I will not refer to them in this ruling. However, what needs to be said is that a Member’s constituency case work and other constituency responsibilities, while important, are by their very nature distinct from a Member’s parliamentary responsibilities. As Speaker Carr indicated at page 30 of the Journals for April 26, 2001:

> Speakers have consistently found – supported by the procedural authorities and a multitude of precedents – that privilege attaches only to a Member’s parliamentary duties, and not to subsidiary duties away from Parliament.

Furthermore, citation 92 in the 6th edition of Beauchesne’s Parliamentary Rules and Forms states as follows:

> A valid claim of privilege in respect to interference with a Member must relate to the Member’s parliamentary duties and not to the work the Member does in relation to that Member’s constituency.
The privilege that protects a Member in respect of what he or she says and does in this House and its committees is known as “parliamentary privilege”; a privilege known as “constituency privilege” does not exist in Ontario or any other jurisdiction that subscribes to the Westminster model of parliament. To those who would claim that this demarcation relegates Members’ constituency responsibilities to a courtesy or inferior status, I would say that parliamentary privilege provides Members with a set of legal rights and exemptions that more than 13 million other Ontarians do not have. The glass is half full, not half empty.

The Member for Burlington states that her reputation has been damaged because of the numerous service-related complaints that were made after the automated calls interfered with her office’s usual routine. I would agree with the Member that damage to a Member’s reputation can amount to obstruction if the Member is prevented from carrying out his or her parliamentary functions. I make the following observations about the application of this proposition to the facts in the case at hand:

- First, the Member did not indicate how the remarks in and the unwelcome consequences of the automated calls prevented her from carrying out her parliamentary duties. For example, the Member did not claim that the automated calls prevented her from speaking in the House on the Budget motion, or from voting on that motion. The calls only appear to have affected her non-parliamentary duties, which (as I have already indicated) are not protected by parliamentary privilege. The best that can be said is that the impact on the Member’s parliamentary duties has been indirect or tangential - which is not enough to make a case for obstruction based on damage to the Member’s reputation.

- Second, many of the rulings mentioned in the House of Commons Procedure and Practice that are authority for the proposition that damage to a Member’s reputation can amount to obstruction deal with MPs’ use of Commons mailing privileges to send misleading information to another MP’s constituents. In the case at hand, however, there is no indication that Assembly resources were used to produce or disseminate the automated calls.

- Third, the Member for Burlington refers to a remark made in a 1985 ruling by Speaker Bosley of the Canadian House of Commons. That ruling is about an advertisement that identified a former MP as an MP; this is not the situation in the case at hand.

- Fourth, I have reviewed a December 13, 2011 Canadian House of Commons ruling involving an incident where an MP’s constituents were the subject of an organized telephone campaign survey that, in the view of the MP, negatively affected his reputation. I have also reviewed a March 6, 2012 Canadian House of Commons ruling dealing with an incident in which an MP’s office was inundated with telephone calls, emails and faxes that, in the view of the MP, hindered him and his staff from serving his constituents and that prevented constituents from contacting him in a timely manner. In both cases, Speaker Scheer ruled that a prima facie case of privilege was not established because the MP had been able to perform his parliamentary duties.

For these reasons, a prima facie case of privilege has not been established.

That being said, I have considerable sympathy for the difficult spot that the Member for Burlington found herself in last week. Like other Members, I have no doubt that she strives to serve her constituents to the best of her ability, regardless of how they contact her. Although I cannot prevent an outside organization from using automated technology to facilitate constituents’ contact with their Member, I would encourage Members and parties to disassociate themselves from any technology-based communication that is inspired by a political calculus that detracts from civil discourse on public business, just as I would discourage any member from crossing into another’s riding by any means for the express purpose of discrediting that member. In other words, take the high road.
I thank the Member for Burlington, the Government House Leader, the Member for Parkdale–High Park, the Member for Simcoe–Grey, the Member for Renfrew–Nipissing–Pembroke, and the Member for Cambridge for speaking to this matter.

FORTY-NINTH DAY

PRAIRES
9:00 A.M.

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Debate resumed and after some time the House recessed at 10:15 a.m.

10:30 A.M.

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

On Monday April 23, 2012, the Member for Parry Sound–Muskoka (Mr. Miller) rose on a point of privilege concerning a remark made by the Deputy Premier (Mr. Duncan) in response to a question placed by the Member for Newmarket–Aurora (Mr. Klees) during the previous Thursday's Question Period about the Ornge file. Specifically, the Member for Parry Sound–Muskoka indicated that the Minister had implied that he was not impartial in fulfilling his duties as Chair of the Standing Committee on Public Accounts, which was looking into the Ornge file.

The Minister's remarks came several days after an April 2 Twitter message by the Premier's former social media coordinator which, according to the Member for Parry Sound–Muskoka, impugned his character, damaged his reputation, sought to intimidate him, inferred that he could not impartially perform his duties as Chair of the Committee, and interfered with his duties as Chair of that Committee.

The Member for Timmins–James Bay (Mr. Bisson) and the Government House Leader (Mr. Milloy) also spoke to this matter. Having had an opportunity to review the relevant Hansard, the information in the notice provided by the Member for Parry Sound–Muskoka, and the relevant procedural authorities, I am now prepared to rule on the matter.

The remarks by the Deputy Premier were made during an exchange on April 19 with the Member for Newmarket–Aurora concerning whether the Premier, Deputy Premier and Kelly Mitchell of Pathway Group would be appearing before the Standing Committee on Public Accounts. The Deputy Premier said the following:

That motion that I referred to to call Mr. Mitchell to committee was in fact a government motion, and the Conservative Chair of the committee deferred dealing with it until next week. I don’t want to offend the sensibilities of the Chair or the House. I won’t use some language, but it appears as though they won’t want him at committee. Will you agree here and now to unanimous consent to call him immediately?
These remarks were unfortunate. Although not an outright accusation that the Chair of the Public Accounts Committee was not acting impartially, they certainly were of a nature such that a listener could believe he or she was being invited to draw this conclusion. Had the remarks been clearly heard I have no doubt they would have been found to be unparliamentary and required to be withdrawn.

In the House, the ability of the Speaker to act in the interests of all members, to maintain order and decorum, and to protect the rights and privileges of all members is derived from an implicit trust in the Speaker’s impartiality and neutrality in the Chair and in all his other responsibilities. In many ways, the Chairs of the Standing Committees might rightly be considered the Speaker’s designates when they preside over a subset of members in a committee.

This brings me to one of the arguments made by the Government House Leader when he responded to this point of privilege, to the effect that the various protections against untoward reflections on a presiding officer are not available to a committee chair because he or she is not a “Presiding Officer” in the same sense as the Speaker, Deputy Speaker, or First, Second or Third Deputy Chairs of the Committee of the Whole House. I disagree. I already mentioned that the committee chairs are in effect designates of the Speaker. As noted in Parliamentary Practice in New Zealand,

> The chairperson performs a similar role in respect of chairing the committee that the Speaker does in chairing the House – calling on members to speak or ask questions, keeping order, ruling on disputed aspects of procedure and putting questions to the committee for formal decision.

Committee chairs are responsible to see that the Standing Orders of the House are observed in their committees to the extent applicable, just as the Speaker and his designates in the House must do. Like the Speaker, they have no vote except in the case of a tie and do not participate in the debates of the committee.

The implication that it would somehow be acceptable to criticize or intimidate or obstruct a committee chair because of a strict designation of the term “presiding officer” is erroneous and I would not want this to remain uncorrected.

Like the Speaker, committee Chairs can only be most effective when their impartiality in the chair is assumed and unquestioned. It is simply not acceptable to make implications about the partiality of the person presiding over a parliamentary proceeding, not only because that person lacks the means to defend himself or herself, but more importantly because a formal course exists for such an assertion to be made, that is, by substantive motion in the affected venue, be it this Legislature or one of its committees.

Members who disagree with the decisions of, or who have lost confidence in, a committee chair have procedural mechanisms at their disposal. If there is no case for using those mechanisms – and there is no case in the incident before me – they should strive to avoid couching or juxtaposing words in such a way as to call into question the neutrality of a Member who has presiding responsibilities in the House or one of its committees. An accusation that a committee chair is not impartial is serious and deserves to be treated as such, and not made in an ill-considered throw-away line in Question Period.

Nevertheless, I do believe that the Deputy Premier’s remarks were of exactly this type – something said in the heat and battle of what was a particularly raucous Question Period. Tempers were high and so was some of the language. As I said, the remarks were unfortunate and I do not excuse them but I also do not believe they were premeditated by the Deputy Premier to undermine or impugn the integrity and reputation for impartiality that the Member for Parry Sound–Muskoka clearly enjoys among his peers in this House.

I do not find the Deputy Premier’s remarks give rise to a finding of prima facie breach of privilege and again state my belief that had they been heard the Deputy Premier would have been asked to withdraw as a matter of order. In fact, such a withdrawal is never too late.
I am concerned, though, about the comment made on Twitter, a copy of which the Member for Parry Sound–Muskoka provided to me. The tweet asks this question about the Chair of the Public Accounts Committee – “Norm Miller MPP met Ornge top executives in 2010 – what did he tell them? Can he still be an impartial chair at public hearings?”

The Member made a thought-provoking point about this by quoting the following from Maingot’s Parliamentary Privilege in Canada:

All interferences with members’ privileges of freedom of speech, such as editorials and other public comment, are not breaches of privilege even though they influence the conduct of members in their parliamentary work.... But any attempt by improper means to influence or obstruct a member in his parliamentary work may constitute contempt. What constitutes an improper means of interfering with members’ parliamentary work is always a question depending on the facts of each case.

This new age of robust and viral social media encourages spontaneous reactions and comment on whatever trend happens to have someone’s immediate attention. The intersection between ancient but still-valid parliamentary privileges, on one hand, and fair comment on the other, promises exponentially more crossings in the future than were possible even a few years ago. While in a proper case the opposite could be found, I am prepared in the present instance to say that this single tweet on Twitter, even if it was re-tweeted several times, does not rise to the level required for me to find it was an attempt to intimidate the Member for Parry Sound–Muskoka.

I therefore do not find that a prima facie case of breach of privilege or of contempt has been made out.

In closing, I will say that in this Assembly, as in most parliamentary jurisdictions, there is a strong tradition of respect for the authority of those Members who exercise presiding functions – be it in the House or its committees. The fact that an issue such as this one arises so infrequently is good evidence of this.

I thank the Member for Parry Sound–Muskoka, the Member for Timmins–James Bay, and the Government House Leader for speaking to this matter.

Le débat reprend et après quelque temps, à 10 h 15, l’Assemblée a suspendu la séance.
I want to take a moment to clarify the disposition of Standing Order 37(a) and specifically the clause relating to the requirement that questions are to be urgent or of public importance. I think all members would acknowledge that the language used in this particular Standing Order is somewhat subjective. As my predecessor in this Chair once observed, “one man's pothole is another man's crater”, it is simply not possible for the Speaker to establish a weighted hierarchy to the content of questions asked in this House.

Many years ago, every question asked had to be vetted in advance by the Speaker, I respectfully submit that the House is not interested in going back to that practice. Indeed, when it comes to content, frequently a question asked on the government side may be on exactly the same topic as one previously asked by the opposition - and still the Speaker is hectored over the application of Standing Order 37(a) (previously Standing Order 27(a)).

This is not a new challenge for a Speaker. To quote from Speaker Turner in 1982, “If I were to apply Standing Order 27(a) in its strictest sense, there would be very few questions allowed in this House. Based on tradition and precedent and historic reference, if you will, the people on this side of the House have as much right to ask a question as people on the other side.”

I cannot apply the standards of questioning to the government members that I do not apply to the opposition members. Going forward, I would ask members on both sides to demonstrate some respect for the right of every private member to ask questions of the Executive Branch.

The Speaker informed the House of the following changes in the Order of Precedence for Private Members’ Public Business:-

Mr. Milligan assumes ballot item number 51 and Mr. Nicholls assumes ballot item number 41

ORDERS OF THE DAY

Third Reading of Bill 2, An Act to amend the Taxation Act, 2007 to implement a healthy homes renovation tax credit.

Debate resumed and after some time the House recessed at 10:15 a.m.

10:30 A.M.

The Speaker addressed the House:-

I would like to bring to the attention of the Members of the House the following appointments that have been made to the list of officers who serve the House:

Trevor Day and Anne Stokes have been appointed Clerks-at-the-Table.

As Table Officers, they will serve the members in a permanent capacity and assist the Clerk and Deputy Clerk in providing procedural advice to the Speaker and to the Members.
I am certain that all members will join me in congratulating Mr. Day and Ms. Stokes as they assume their new responsibilities.

Congratulations, and welcome.

The Speaker addressed the House:-

I would like to take this opportunity to address the House on the issue of the use of electronic devices in the Chamber.

As Members will know, there is a nominal prohibition on the use of any communication devices in the House. However, the practice has developed whereby the Speaker will overlook Members using certain devices, as long as their use is silent, unobtrusive and not complained about by other Members.

Members may not read directly from these devices while they have the floor, nor may the telephone or camera functions ever be used.

I remind Members of these restrictions as a result of having certain infractions drawn to my attention; notably, photos taken and repeated instances of ringing phones on the floor of the House.

I ask all Members to ensure their phones are on silent mode whenever they are in the Chamber, and to observe current practice while at their places in this Chamber, in particular the prohibition against using the camera function.

ORDERS OF THE DAY
Third Reading of Bill 2, An Act to amend the Taxation Act, 2007 to implement a healthy homes renovation tax credit.

Debate resumed and after some time the House recessed at 10:14 a.m.

10:30 A.M.
The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

On Monday, August 27, 2012 the Member for Newmarket—Aurora (Mr. Klees), rose on a point of privilege concerning an anonymous document that had been distributed to Members of this House, the Queen’s Park Press Gallery and an undetermined number of other individuals.

In his point of privilege, the Member claimed that the document, entitled “The Frank Klees Report”, impugned his integrity and that it was clearly intended to intimidate and obstruct him from carrying out his duties as they relate to the Standing Committee on Public Accounts and the committee’s review of the Auditor General’s Report on Ornge Air Ambulance.

After reviewing the Member’s written submission and the Hansard from August 27, I am now prepared to give my ruling.

Parliamentary privilege is defined in Erskine May’s Parliamentary Practice as "the sum of the peculiar rights enjoyed by each House collectively … and by Members of each House individually, without which they could not discharge their functions, and which exceed those possessed by other bodies or individuals.”

Included in these rights, as enumerated in House of Commons Procedure and Practice, is a Member’s freedom from obstruction, interference, intimidation and molestation. This text notes that "the unjust damaging of a Member’s good name might be seen as constituting an obstruction if the Member is prevented from performing his or her parliamentary functions.”

The document in question raised by Mr. Klees, which is undated, contains 7 pages of ‘resumé style’ information about the Member’s educational background and purported involvement in a number of business ventures.

In making his point of privilege, the Member for Newmarket-Aurora drew a parallel between the existence of this document affecting him, and the posting of videos on YouTube earlier this year that directly targeted the Canadian Minister of Public Safety, the Hon. Vic Toews.

After reviewing the document of which the Member complains, I have to say that I am not able to find any realistic threat, specific or general, against the Member for Newmarket—Aurora. This is an important consideration when considering the relevance of the Toews matter to the case at hand.
A key aspect of House of Commons Speaker Scheer’s finding of a prima facie case of privilege in support of Mr. Toews was his conclusion that "when duly elected members are personally threatened for their work in Parliament, whether introducing a bill, making a statement or casting a vote, this House must take the matter very seriously." Speaker Scheer went on the say, "I have carefully reviewed the online videos in which the language used does indeed constitute a direct threat to the minister in particular, as well as other members. These threats demonstrate a flagrant disregard of our traditions and a subversive attack on the most fundamental privileges of this House."

The Klees document, while sinister and disturbing in its own right, does not rise to the level of the obvious threat directed to Minister Toews last February.

In further considering how to address this point of privilege, I have found the following passage from Parliamentary Privilege in Canada by Joseph Maingot to be helpful.

Maingot states,

> Whether a parliamentary privilege is violated depends on the nature and extent of any particular privilege claimed by Parliament in relation to the circumstances of the time, the underlying test in all cases being whether the right claimed as a privilege is one which is absolutely necessary for the due execution of the powers of Parliament. Therefore, all interferences with members’ privileges of freedom of speech, such as editorial and other public comment, are not breaches of privilege even though they influence the conduct of members in their parliamentary work. Accordingly, not every action by an outside body which may influence the conduct of a member of Parliament as such could now be regarded as a breach of privilege, even if it were calculated and intended to bring pressure on the member to take or to refrain from taking a particular course. But any attempt by improper means to influence a member in his parliamentary conduct is a breach of privilege. What constitutes an improper means of interfering with members’ parliamentary work is always a question depending on the facts of the case. Finally, there must be some connection between the material alleged to contain the interference and the parliamentary proceeding.

Also on this theme, the 24th Edition of Erskine May, at page 263, states,

> Written imputations, as affecting a Member of Parliament, may amount to contempt, without, perhaps, being libels at common law, but to constitute a contempt a libel upon a Member must concern the character or conduct of the Member in that capacity.

In reviewing the Klees document I can find no single connection between it and, as the member claims, his work on the Public Accounts Committee, or any other parliamentary proceeding. The member alleges this connection, and claims an attempt to intimidate him as a consequence, but the document itself is completely silent on the member’s parliamentary work. Further, the Member for Newmarket—Aurora has made no claim that the document interfered with his ability to perform his normal parliamentary roles, including his work on the Public Accounts Committee.

I am therefore unable to find that a prima facie breach of privilege has been made out.

However, I have previously referred to the sinister nature of the document in question. While not expressly stated by its unknown author, this unsigned document can realistically serve no other purpose than to attempt to impugn the integrity of its subject. It was prepared and presented in a manner that invites the reader to accept its innuendo, and its litany of guilt-by-association, as fact.

I therefore join the chorus of condemnation that members from all parties in this House expressed on the day the Member for Newmarket—Aurora raised his point of privilege, and I hope the likes of a document such as this one will not be seen again.

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

On Monday August 27, 2012, the Member for Cambridge (Mr. Leone) rose on a question of privilege concerning the government’s failure to produce certain documents requested by the Standing Committee on Estimates. The Government House Leader (Mr. Milloy), the Member for Timmins–James Bay (Mr. Bisson), the Member for Chatham–Kent–Essex (Mr. Nicholls), the Member for Renfrew–Nipissing–Pembroke (Mr. Yakabuski), the Member for Nipissing (Mr. Fedeli), the Member for Leeds–Grenville (Mr. Clark), and the Member for Beaches–East York (Mr. Prue) also spoke to the matter.
Having reviewed the notice provided by the Member for Cambridge, the subsequent written submissions of the Government House Leader and of the Member for Cambridge, the August 27 report of the Standing Committee on Estimates, relevant Hansards for that Committee, and various parliamentary authorities, I am now prepared to rule on the matter.

The details of what occurred in the Committee are contained in the above-mentioned documents, but the essential chronology is as follows:

- On May 16, the Standing Committee on Estimates formally adopted a motion requesting that the Minister of Energy, the Ministry of Energy and the Ontario Power Authority provide, within two weeks, all correspondence relating to decisions in 2010 and 2011 not to proceed with the construction of power plants in Oakville and Mississauga respectively.

- On May 30, the Minister responded to the request by indicating that it would not be appropriate to disclose the correspondence because the files were confidential and because many of them were either subject to solicitor-client or litigation privilege or else highly commercially sensitive; their disclosure would tend to prejudice ongoing negotiations and litigation. The Ontario Power Authority responded in a similar vein on the same day.

- On June 5, in the Standing Committee on Estimates, a motion was brought forward by Mr. Leone calling for a report from the Committee to the House with respect to the Minister’s May 30 decision not to provide the requested documents. The Committee debated the motion and amendments to it on that day, and 3 subsequent meetings of the Committee - June 6, June 12 and July 11 - finally adopting the version of the motion contained in the Committee’s August 27 Report to the House.

- On July 11, an agreement having just been reached to relocate the Mississauga plant, the Minister provided some of the requested documents. The Minister indicated that other documents would not be provided to the Committee because they were subject to various legal privileges.

- On August 27, shortly before the Member for Cambridge rose on his question of privilege, the Standing Committee on Estimates reported that, for reasons indicated in the report, the government had not produced certain correspondence that the Committee had ordered to be produced, and that this non-production may raise a matter of privilege. The report also recommended that the Minister of Energy be compelled to provide the documents requested by the Committee without delay, and that the Minister be held in contempt if he refuses to do so.

Given these developments, the nature of parliamentary powers respecting the production of documents requires some examination. With respect to committee powers, Standing Order 110(b) provides as follows: “Except when the House otherwise orders, each Committee shall have power to send for persons, papers and things.” This Standing Order effectively empowers committees, including the Standing Committee on Estimates, to order the production of documents.

Further to this point, in a March 9, 2011 ruling dealing with a non-production incident in the Canadian House of Commons, Speaker Milliken found that there was a prima facie question of privilege where there was non-compliance with a production Order made by a committee; the committee’s report on the non-compliance was not concurred in before a question of privilege was raised in the House.

Between the time of the raising of that question of privilege and the time that the Speaker ruled that there was a prima facie question of privilege, the House made an Order for production with respect to the same documents; nevertheless, the ruling clearly indicates that it was based on non-compliance with the production Order of the committee, not of the House.

Therefore, non-compliance with a production Order made by either a committee or the House can, in a proper case, constitute a matter of privilege.
Turning to the issue of whether the matter before me is such a case, Members will know that as a matter of parliamentary privilege the House has the right to institute inquiries, to require the attendance of witnesses, and to order the production of documents. The House exercises this right when it gives mandates to committees and delegates powers to them; the committees in turn carry out the mandates and exercise the powers within the limits of their authority. Therefore, when the Standing Committee on Estimates considers the Estimates, it does so pursuant to Standing Orders 59 and 60, and the Order of the House referring the Estimates to that Committee; when it orders production of documents relevant to its mandate, it does so pursuant to Standing Order 110(b).

The right to order production of documents is fundamental to and necessary for the proper functioning of the Assembly. If the House and its committees do not enjoy this right, then the accountability, scrutiny and financial functions of Parliament - which go to the core of our system of responsible government - would be compromised.

At meetings of the Standing Committee on Estimates, the Minister of Energy did not assert that the Committee had no right to inquire into the matter before it, or that it had no power to send for the documents in question. Rather, the Minister indicated that legal and other considerations should militate against the production of all requested documents.

But as Speaker Milliken indicated in the following excerpt from the “Afghanistan” ruling (at page 2043 of the Hansard for April 27, 2010), parliamentary privilege - of which the right to order production of documents is but one category - trumps such considerations:

(P)rocedural authorities are categorical in repeatedly asserting the powers of the House in ordering the production of documents. No exceptions are made for any category of government documents, even those related to national security.

Furthermore, pages 978 and 979 of the 2nd edition of the House of Commons Procedure and Practice provide as follows:

The Standing Orders do not delimit the power to order the production of papers and records. The result is a broad, absolute power that on the surface appears to be without restriction. There is no limit on the types of papers likely to be requested; the only prerequisite is that the papers exist in hard copy or electronic format - and that they are located in Canada. They can be papers originating from or in the possession of governments, or papers the authors or owners of which are from the private sector or civil society (individuals, associations, organizations, et cetera).

In practice, standing committees may encounter situations where the authors of or officials responsible for papers refuse to provide them or are willing to provide them only after certain parts have been removed. Public servants and Ministers may sometimes invoke their obligations under certain legislation to justify their position. Companies may be reluctant to release papers which could jeopardize their industrial security or infringe upon their legal obligations, particularly with regard to the protection of personal information. Others have cited solicitor-client privilege in refusing to allow access to legal papers or notices.

These types of situations have absolutely no bearing on the power of committees to order the production of papers and records. No statute or practice diminishes the fullness of that power rooted in House privileges unless there is an explicit legal provision to that effect, or unless the House adopts a specific resolution limiting the power. The House has never set a limit on its power to order the production of papers and records. However, it may not be appropriate to insist on the production of papers and records in all cases.

In many parliamentary jurisdictions, the House and its committees often accommodate or respect security, legal and public policy considerations; they often accept reasonable excuses for non-production. However, these authorities also indicate that a decision to be selective with respect to production is a decision for the House or the committee.
In the case at hand, the Standing Committee on Estimates made a production Order despite the arguments made by the Minister. My response to the Government House Leader’s claim that the Committee did not turn its mind to the reasons for non-production proffered by the Minister is,

- First, it was not obliged to do so.
- Second, the documents could have been offered to the committee under conditions that would both satisfy the needs of the committee and the minister: for instance, being received in a closed session without public disclosure, or in an acceptably redacted version. The Chair put forward this notion on one occasion, and it was passed by without comment from any other member.
- Third, the Government House Leader in his written submission repeatedly points to what a difference a clear motion would have made to the Minister of Energy’s ability to fully respond to the Committee’s request; that is, a motion that explicitly expressed the Committee’s request even for documents that are highly commercially sensitive, for which solicitor-client privilege is claimed, and/or are subject to litigation privilege. It is claimed that the Minister could have and would have complied in that scenario. During the time in question, the Minister could have requested the Committee to pass just such a motion, making it explicit that it still demanded the requested documents, notwithstanding the Minister’s wish to withhold disclosure for the reasons stated in his May 30 reply to the Committee’s original request. The record does not show that the Minister proactively did so.

The Standing Committee on Estimates was unquestionably entitled to request the documents sought from the Minister of Energy, and in the end the Minister had an obligation to comply with the Committee’s call for those documents. The Committee did not accept the Minister’s reasons for withholding the documents and persisted in its demand during an extended period of time.

I am therefore satisfied that a prima facie case of privilege has been established.

However, in the face of all of the submissions, the Committee transcripts and its report to the House, it seems possible to me that, but for a lack of frank communication, this matter might have been settled in the Estimates Committee some time ago. Further, given that in his submission the Government House Leader wrote, “(i)f the House chooses to issue the requested order or the committee chooses to pass a motion that clarifies its position with respect to the motion of May 16th, the government will abide by the will of the Legislature”. I am hopeful that there is a possibility that the matter still can be settled.

I want to quote two passages from Speaker Milliken’s April 27, 2010 Afghan Detainee ruling:

(I)t seems to me, that the issue before us is this: is it possible to put into place a mechanism by which these documents could be made available to the House without compromising the security and confidentiality of the information they contain? In other words, is it possible for the two sides, working together in the best interest of the Canadians they serve, to devise a means where both their concerns are met? Surely that is not too much to hope for.

(T)he fact remains that the House and the Government have, essentially, an unbroken record of some 140 years of collaboration and accommodation in cases of this kind. It seems to me that it would be a signal failure for us to see that record shattered in the Third Session of the Fortieth Parliament because we lacked the will or the wit to find a solution to this impasse.

I too have immense faith in the abilities of the Honourable Members of this House and I know that a solution can be found to this impasse. Both sides need to exercise sobriety in this. Political fortune should not be the motive for eroding the supremacy of Parliament or ignoring the best interests of the citizens of this Province. Assiduous attention should be paid to dealing with matters such as this responsibly.
Therefore, inspired by the precedent of Speaker Milliken’s innovative ruling in the Afghan Detainee case, I am going to presume leave of this House, and set this matter aside for the moment. I ask that the 3 House Leaders take it upon themselves to find a path that can satisfy the request of the Estimates Committee. If this cannot be accomplished by the end of the day on Monday, September 24, then I will return to the House with a statement on a motion by the Member for Cambridge that would then be appropriate in the circumstances.

I thank the Member for Cambridge, the Government House Leader, the Member for Timmins–James Bay, the Member for Chatham–Kent–Essex, the Member for Renfrew–Nipissing–Pembroke, the Member for Nipissing, the Member for Leeds–Grenville, and the Member for Beaches–East York for speaking to this matter, and I thank the Member for Cambridge and the Government House Leader for their written submissions.

EIGHTY-THIRD DAY

PRAYERS

9:00 A.M.

ORDERS OF THE DAY
The Speaker addressed the House:-

On September 13, 2012 in response to a point of privilege raised by the Member for Cambridge (Mr. Leone), I offered a period of time to allow the House Leaders to devise a means by which the concerns of all parties could be met. I also indicated that I would return to the House to make a statement on the matter.

Let me now advise the House of the position we currently find ourselves in. I first want to make note for the House that the Minister of Energy and the Ontario Power Authority yesterday tabled a large number of documents related to the Oakville and Mississauga power plants.

Letters of transmittal from both the Minister and the OPA indicate that what was tabled comprises all documents responsive to the May 16 request of the Standing Committee on Estimates. It would appear that the House is now in receipt of the requisite documents; however this is ultimately a determination for the Standing Committee on Estimates to make.

It seems equally apparent to me, not having received any communication to the contrary signed by all three House Leaders, that there are still some remaining concerns related to the initial refusal to produce the documents and the length of time it has taken to do so. This takes us to the finding of a prima facie breach of privilege on September 13, and the response of the House to that finding.

At this point, I want to take a moment to clarify for the House exactly what a prima facie finding of a breach of privilege means, and just as importantly what it does not mean, just as Speaker Peters did in relation to a similar situation on May 4, 2010.

Joseph Maingot, in Parliamentary Privilege in Canada, states (at page 221):

A prima facie case of privilege in the parliamentary sense is one where the evidence on its face as outlined by the Member is sufficiently strong for the House to be asked to debate the matter and to send it to a committee to investigate whether the privileges of the House have been breached or a contempt has occurred and report to the House.

... While the Speaker may find that a prima facie case of privilege exists and give the matter precedence in debate, it is the House alone that decides whether a breach of privilege or a contempt has occurred, for only the House has the power to commit or punish for contempt.
In short, a prima facie finding by the Speaker does not mean that the Speaker has found anyone guilty of such an allegation. Rather, prima facie means the Speaker has determined that on the face of it, the information presented points toward the likelihood that a breach of privilege has occurred, and that it is in the interests of the House to give priority consideration to such a serious matter, and for a parliamentary committee to inquire into it.

In the case at hand, while it may be that the House would determine that the documents having been tabled resolves the matter and that is the end of it; it may also be that the House would determine otherwise, that is, that the matter of the prima facie finding still warrants a response.

Either way, it is the House and not the Speaker that is in the position to make that determination.

That being the case, I understand that the Member for Cambridge has been advised on what an appropriate motion would be in response to a prima facie finding of breach of privilege such as this and I will turn now to the Member to determine if he does wish to proceed with that motion.

Just before allowing the Member for Cambridge to put the motion, I also want to clarify for the House how the subsequent debate will play out in the House in a practical sense.

The motion that the Member for Cambridge will move is debatable and amendable. It will have precedence over, and will displace, consideration of all regular business until it is disposed of.

This includes Question Period, Deferred Votes, Routine Proceedings and Private Members’ Public Business. I will note that on previous occasions in 2003 and 1997 when a privilege motion was being debated, the House still considered Private Members’ Public Business. This is attributable to the fact that the physical structure of the meeting day in those years was different than it is today. It is not now possible as it was on those previous times to separate out a discrete time for Private Members’ Business.

Debate on the motion will comprise of the normal rotation, with each Member being entitled to speak for up to 20 minutes on the motion and again on any amendment. There will not be a period for Questions and Comments following speeches. While the vote on any such amendment is not deferrable, the vote on the main motion will be.

I now recognize the Member for Cambridge to put his motion.

Second Reading of Bill 65, An Act to amend the Co-operative Corporations Act and the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 in respect of non-profit housing co-operatives and to make consequential amendments to other Acts.

Debate arose and after some time, the House recessed at 10:12 a.m.

10:30 A.M.
The Speaker informed the House, That the following document was tabled:-

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

The Member for Beaches–East York has given me written notice of his intention to raise a point of privilege relating to the lighting levels in the Legislative Chamber.

I will deal with this point of privilege without hearing from the Member as Standing Order 21(d) permits me to do.

I believe he may know that the matter he raises does not fall under the defined heads of privilege enjoyed by members of this House. Any Member seeking to draw attention to any failure or deficiency of equipment or furnishings in this Chamber may do so by advising the Sergeant–at–Arms, the Clerk or myself privately.

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

The Member for Nickel Belt has given me written notice of her intention to raise a point of privilege, relating to the question of whether a witness who gave testimony to the Standing Committee on Public Accounts on the Ornge Air Ambulance issue, is now being intimidated or retaliated against as a result of that testimony.

In her notice, the Member advises me that the Public Accounts Committee as a whole had considered and was concerned by this matter, and had earlier taken steps to begin to deal with it prior to the lapsing of the Committee's membership on September 9. In the interim, the file has evolved and the Member now seeks to bring the matter before the House in the face of the unavailability of the committee to deal with the new information.
I want to advise the Member for Nickel Belt that I will deal with this point of privilege without hearing further from the Member, as Standing Order 21(d) permits me to do.

Notwithstanding the Member’s stated conundrum that, while committee matters need to be dealt with in committee, there is currently no committee membership to do so, nevertheless it must be the committee that deals first with this matter.

If I were to presume to rule on this matter now, I would effectively be substituting my judgment for the Committee’s, which would have intimate knowledge I don’t have of all the nuances involved. I would also be substituting my judgment for that of the House, which is first entitled to receive reports from its committees on such matters, and to determine the method of dealing with them.

I acknowledge that the current committee situation is unusual; however I have to assume that committees will eventually be struck and at that time the Standing Committee on Public Accounts may wish to deal with the serious issue that the Member has raised with me.

For these reasons I must rule that the proposed point of privilege is premature.
