EXPLANATORY NOTE

SCHEDULE 1 BUILDING CODE ACT, 1992

Currently, subsection 4 (4) of the Building Code Act, 1992 requires that inspectors necessary for the enforcement of the Act in the areas in which Ontario has jurisdiction be appointed under Part III of the Public Service of Ontario Act, 2006. The subsection is re-enacted to require the Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing to appoint those inspectors.

SCHEDULE 2 CITY OF TORONTO ACT, 2006

The Schedule amends the City of Toronto Act, 2006 in the following ways:

1. Section 111 is amended by providing the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing with authority to make regulations with respect to a variety of matters including governing the powers of the City under section 111 and authorizing the City to require certain owners of land to make payments and provide compensation.
2. New subsection 111 (8) provides that in the event of a conflict, the provisions of the regulations made under section 111 prevail over the provisions of the Act or any other Act or regulation.
3. Currently, subsection 114 (1.2) provides that the construction, erection or placing of a building or structure for residential purposes on a parcel of land does not constitute “development” for the purposes of section 114 if the parcel of land will contain no more than 10 residential units. This subsection is amended to provide that such activities do in fact constitute “development” if the parcel of land includes land in a prescribed area.
4. Subsection 114 (14.1) currently provides for circumstances in which the City is required to refund fees for processing an application for the approval of plans and drawings that are submitted on or after January 1, 2023. This subsection is amended to apply with respect to plans and drawings that are received by the City on or after July 1, 2023. A new subsection 114 (14.2) provides for the cancellation of any refund if the plans and drawings are received by the City before July 1, 2023. In addition, a new subsection 114 (14.3) gives the Minister the power to make a regulation providing that the City is not required to refund fees for plans and drawings received on or after a specified date or during a specified period.
5. Subsection 114 (15.2) is amended to provide that any information or material an applicant must provide to the City under subsections 114 (4.2) and (4.3) must also be forwarded by the city clerk to the Ontario Land Tribunal in the case of an appeal to the Tribunal under subsection 114 (15) or (15.1).

SCHEDULE 3 DEVELOPMENT CHARGES ACT, 1997

The Schedule amends subsections 2 (3.2) and (3.3) of the Development Charges Act, 1997 by striking out “parcel of urban residential land” in paragraph 3 of each subsection and substituting “parcel of land”.

SCHEDULE 4 MINISTRY OF MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS AND HOUSING ACT

Currently, subsection 12 (2) of the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing Act authorizes the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing to appoint and fix the terms of reference for the Provincial Land and Development Facilitator. Subsection 12 (3) of the Act requires the Facilitator to perform specified functions at the direction of the Minister. Subsections 12 (2) and (3) of the Act are re-enacted to authorize the Minister to appoint the Facilitator and up to four Deputy Facilitators and fix their terms of reference and to require the Facilitator and Deputy Facilitators to perform specified functions at the direction of the Minister.

SCHEDULE 5 MUNICIPAL ACT, 2001

The Schedule amends section 99.1 of the Municipal Act, 2001 by providing the Minister with authority to make regulations with respect to a variety of matters including governing the powers of local municipalities under section 99.1 and authorizing certain local municipalities to require certain owners of land to make payments and provide compensation. New subsection 99.1 (8) provides that in the event of a conflict, the provisions of the regulations made under section 99.1 prevail over the provisions of the Act or any other Act or regulation.

SCHEDULE 6 PLANNING ACT

The Schedule makes various amendments to the Planning Act, including the following:

1. The definition of “area of employment” in subsection 1 (1) is remade to provide that specified uses are not business and economic uses for the purposes of that definition. A transitional provision is also included.

2. Subsection 34 (10.12) currently provides for circumstances in which a municipality is required to refund fees for processing an application to amend its by-laws that is received on or after January 1, 2023. This subsection is amended to apply with respect to applications that are received by the municipality on or after July 1, 2023, and a new subsection 34 (10.13) provides for the cancellation of any refunds for applications received by the municipality before July 1, 2023. In addition, a new subsection 34 (10.14) provides that a municipality is not required to refund fees if the municipality is prescribed by regulation when it receives the application.
3. Amendments are made to section 38 of the Act to shorten the period of time within which the clerk of a municipality is required to give notice of a by-law made under subsection 38 (1) or (2) and to apply a single procedure for all persons or public bodies having received notice of the by-law to appeal to the Ontario Land Tribunal.
4. Currently, subsection 41 (1.2) provides that the construction, erection or placing of a building or structure for residential purposes on a parcel of land does not constitute “development” for the purposes of section 41 if the parcel of land will contain no more than 10 residential units. This subsection is amended to provide that such activities do in fact constitute “development” if the parcel of land includes land in a prescribed area.
5. Subsection 41 (11.1) currently provides for circumstances in which a municipality is required to refund fees for processing an application for the approval of plans and drawings that are submitted on or after January 1, 2023. This subsection is amended to apply with respect to plans and drawings that are received by the municipality on or after July 1, 2023, and a new subsection 41 (11.2) provides for the cancellation of any refunds for plans and drawings received by the municipality before July 1, 2023. In addition, a new subsection 41 (11.3) provides that a municipality is not required to refund fees if the municipality is prescribed by regulation when it receives the plans and drawings.
6. Subsection 41 (12.0.2) is amended to provide that any information or material that an applicant must provide to a municipality under subsections 41 (3.3) and (3.4) must also be forwarded by the clerk to the Ontario Land Tribunal in the case of an appeal to the Tribunal under subsection 41 (12) or (12.0.1).
7. A new subsection 47 (4.0.1) is added to provide that the Minister may, in an order made under clause 47 (1) (a), provide that policy statements, provincial plans and official plans do not apply in respect of a licence, permit, approval, permission or other matter required before a use permitted by the order may be established.
8. A new section 49.2 is added to give the Minister the power to make an order requiring an owner of land to enter into an agreement with the Minister or a municipality in matters where the Provincial Land and Development Facilitator or the Deputy Facilitator has been directed by the Minister to advise, make recommendations or perform any other functions with respect to the land.

SCHEDULE 7
RESIDENTIAL TENANCIES ACT, 2006

The Schedule makes various amendments to the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006, including the following amendments:

1. Part IV is amended to add section 36.1, which permits tenants to install and use a window or portable air conditioner in a rental unit for which the landlord does not supply air conditioning, subject to specified exceptions and conditions. In cases where the landlord is obligated under the tenancy agreement to supply electricity to the rental unit, the landlord may increase the rent charged to the tenant, subject to the tenancy agreement providing otherwise. Rules are set out requiring rent decreases if a tenant seasonally ceases to use an air conditioner, or removes it. Certain provisions of the section are made to apply to previously-installed window or portable air conditioners.
2. Subsection 50 (3) is re-enacted to provide that when a landlord gives notice of termination of a tenancy because the landlord requires possession of a rental unit in order to do repairs or renovations to it that are so extensive that they require a building permit and vacant possession, the notice must be accompanied by a report prepared by a person who has the prescribed qualifications, which states that the repairs or renovations are so extensive that they require the vacant possession and which meets any other prescribed requirements. Failure to meet the requirement renders the notice void. Subsection 73 (4) is enacted to require the Board to consider the report when determining whether to make an order terminating the tenancy, although the Board is not bound by the report.
3. Currently, under section 53, a tenant who receives notice of termination of a tenancy for the purpose of repairs or renovations may have a right of first refusal to occupy the rental unit as a tenant when the repairs or renovations are completed. The section is amended to provide that, if a tenant gives notice that they wish to have a right of first refusal, the landlord must provide specified notices to the tenant respecting the unit’s readiness for occupancy. When the unit is ready for occupancy, the landlord must give the tenant at least 60 days to exercise the right of first refusal to occupy the unit. Section 57.1 is amended to provide that a failure to comply with the notice requirements is deemed to constitute a failure to have afforded a right of first refusal for the purposes of subsection 57.1 (1) (former tenant’s application, failure to afford tenant right of first refusal). Section 57.1 is also amended to change the time limit applicable to the making of an application under subsection 57.1 (1).
4. Currently, under clause 57 (1) (a), the Board may make various orders if the Board determines that, among other things, a landlord has given a notice of termination under section 48 in bad faith and no person referred to in clause 48 (1) (a), (b), (c) or (d) occupied the rental unit within a reasonable time after the former tenant vacated the rental unit. New subsection 57 (6.1) provides that if none of the specified persons occupied the rental unit within the prescribed period of time after the former tenant vacated the rental unit, it is presumed that the landlord gave the notice of termination in bad faith and that the rental unit was not occupied within a reasonable time.

5. Subsection 206 (1) is amended to require that the written agreement reached between the landlord and the tenant to resolve the subject-matter of an application to the Board be in the form approved by the Board.
6. Section 238 is amended to increase the maximum fines from $50,000 to $100,000 in the case of a person other than a corporation and from $250,000 to $500,000 in the case of a corporation.
