ORDERS OF THE DAY

ORDRE DU JOUR

Opposition Day

Jour de l'opposition

Mr. Tory moved,

M. Tory propose,

That the Legislative Assembly call upon the government,

To recognize that under the watch of the McGuinty Liberal government, the Province of Ontario has witnessed a record number of gun-related homicides in 2005; and

To recognize that the Province of Ontario has fallen victim to excessive gang-related crime and youth violence with no coordinated youth strategy put forward by the McGuinty Liberal government to address and reverse this trend; and

To recognize that Premier McGuinty and the Attorney General were missing in action this summer when gun homicides were a weekly occurrence and when Ontarians needed their leadership the most; and

To recognize that the McGuinty Liberal government has failed to make any effort to effectively lobby the federal government to toughen sentencing for gun crimes; and

To keep its promise to hire one thousand new police officers, not just to promise them over and over, and to keep their promise to "build safe communities with more police and more prosecutors".
