ORDERS OF THE DAY

Whereas Cabinet Ministers are responsible for billions of taxpayer dollars and make important decisions that impact people's everyday lives; and

Whereas Ontarians have watched the Government consistently make policy and funding decisions that benefit their donors at the public's expense; and

Jour de l'opposition

Marit Stiles a proposé,

Whereas the fundraising activities of this Government's Ministers, and their apparent coordination with their Party, is a continuation of the cash-for-access culture from the former Liberal Government; and

Whereas this has led Ontarians to believe that they must make political donations to Ministers in order to be heard and to get things done; and

Whereas it is not acceptable for Ministers of the Crown to raise large sums of money from stakeholders with active files within their Ministries;

Therefore, in the opinion of the House, the Government must close loopholes and strengthen the rules in the Members' Integrity Act, 1994 to prohibit Ministers from accepting personal benefits connected directly or indirectly to their duties and to end cash-for-access in Ontario.
